School to rescue as pool use is granted

HUNDREDS of people who have paid for lessons at Chase Leisure Centre will finally get a chance to swim – at a nearby school's pool.

More than 400 swimmers have been informed by Wigan Leisure Centre Trust (WLCT), which manages leisure facilities on behalf of Cannock Chase Council, that a temporary facility at Cannock Chase High School is now available.

The school's pool has limited space in its shallow end which wouldn't allow for large groups of young children, meaning not all of the 670 youngsters on the waiting list can participate in the lessons.

Ideal

WLCT chief executive Stuart Murray, said: "We are extremely grateful to Chase High for allowing us access to their pool. This isn't an ideal solution but we're not in an ideal situation."

"This move will enable us to continue some swimming lessons and ease some of our customers' frustrations but our ultimate aim is to open the new pool at Chase Leisure Centre as quickly as possible."

Councillor Christine Mitchell, culture and sport leader, said: "We've worked hard with WLCT to find a short-term solution and we are speeding up the opening of the new pool."

Store given the all-clear

A FOOD and wine shop in Rugeley today made it clear it did not close after mice were found during a routine hygiene inspection, as reported in The Chronicle on October 4.

West End Wines in Anson Street remained open, although it stopped selling some food until the problem was dealt with. Cannock Chase Council wrongly stated that it had closed.

The shop is now fully open after being given the all-clear.

Store work close to completion as opening nears

Hednesford's new town centre Tesco store nears completion ahead of its November 26 opening

WORK on a new glass-fronted Tesco superstore in Hednesford – the centrepiece of the town's £50m transformation – is almost finished.

The store is due to open on November 26 as part of the revamp of Victoria Shopping Park and bosses are also organising an official opening ceremony. The details of the ceremony are due to be finalised within the next week but it is believed it will include special offers for customers.

Contractors are now in the final stages of building the store, which measures 80,000 sq ft. There were more than 500 applications for the 140 jobs advertised, 100 of which went to the area's long-term unemployed.

Council bosses have thanked residents and businesses for their patience while the huge project went ahead.

Councillor Diane Todd, town centre regeneration leader for Cannock Chase Council, said: "I'd like to thank again businesses, residents and shoppers in Hednesford for their patience and support over the last 18 months."

Villagers welcome nursery's opening

A NEW Huntington pre-school will launch this month, taking the place of one that was forced to close down because of a "hazardous" garden shed.

Littleton Minors, which is connected with Moorhill School but run as an independent charity, will open at Huntington Community Centre on November 19.

It has already begun recruiting and will be able to accommodate up to 30 children at any one time, overseen by three school staff.

Manager Margaret Harris said: "Our vision is to provide high quality care and education for children in the Huntington area like we do at the current premises."

Quickly

Parish councillor Jeff Ashley added: "The parish are very pleased that we have got this facility back in the village so quickly."

But organisers from the previous pre-school are still angry at the council's decision to order them from the Stafford Road premises.

Kim Briggs, former pre-school committee chairman, said: "I've got seven staff out of work and one person I can't pay redundancy money to who I owe £600."

Stacey Waldron, whose four-year-old son has moved from the pre-school to Littleton Green Nursery, said: "All the children were forced to find somewhere else."

Shops plan thrown out

PLANS to turn an Indian restaurant on a key gateway between Cannock and Stafford into a row of shops have been turned down.

South Staffordshire Council's regulatory committee refused the proposals for the Blue Ginger site in Stafford Road, Huntington on Tuesday night.

Huntington and Hather-ton Councillor Jeff Ashley said: "There is not adequate parking provision at this site and there would be no space for deliveries."

LIBRARY MAY NOW MOVE TO COLLEGE

PLANS are being drawn up to move Cannock Library to the town's South Staffordshire College campus.

The campus is having a £6 million redevelopment and county Councillor Patrick Corfield wants to create a larger library there. He has asked engineers to prepare detailed proposals.

The proposals will show the location, size and scope of a new library at the site, at The Green. They are due to complete that work early next week.

Outlining the proposals, Councillor Corfield said the library would only move from Manor Avenue if better premises could be secured.

"We have had talks with the college and after that we got on to our engineers to see what would be involved," he said.

Better

"There will have to be new building work done and that is what the engineers are looking at."

"We will not go ahead with this unless it is a better facility than what we have already got. We would have to be sure it was larger, then there are things such as disabled access to consider."

Councillor Corfield met South Staffordshire College chief executive Graham

by Mark Mudie

Morley to discuss the plans. If a new library is eventually agreed it will be incorporated in the overhaul of the college building.

The Chronicle first revealed speculation in May over the library's move to within the college. Fears over the facility's future were allayed.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson said: "I'd be concerned if this went ahead, because the regular users of the library at the moment might be deterred by having hundreds and hundreds of students milling around."

"That's the main worry. But if it's the only way of keeping the library it might have to be done."

The college redevelopment will see a glass-roofed atrium installed at the centre of the building. Work is due to be completed by September 2013.

Drama group spreads Christmas cheer

Gill Jordan and Guy Rowland preparing to star in the Sundial Theatre touring production of Mr Tinsel's Magical Musical, which will help boost charity funds

A DRAMA group in Cheslyn Hay will spread a little festive cheer with a number of Christmas shows.

Sundial Theatre Company is taking bookings for stagings of the productions.

There is a children's show called Mr Tinsel's Magical Musical Extravaganza, aimed at three to seven year olds.

And members are also taking a music hall show aimed at older audiences on the road, all the while rehearsing for a pantomime at Blists Hill in Shropshire.

Funds from the tour performances will go to Help the Aged in Wolverhampton.

Private

Mother-of-three Gill Jordan, who runs the group from her home, encouraged people who wanted to host shows to get in touch.

Comedy actress Gill became an overnight internet sensation when her sketch Doreen's Story, scored more than a million hits on YouTube.

The 44-year-old, who has since teamed up with Black Country theatre group Fizzog for its pantomime, said: "We really need people to book us. We do private parties, murder mysteries, a 1940s show – we've got a lot going on."

Sundial Theatre Company can be booked on 07794 869540.

Development name is fit for a king

A NEW extra care scheme in Penkridge will be fit for a king after being given a name inspired by Edgar the Peaceful, King of England from 959-975.

Pencric is the name of a £13m extra care scheme being built at Tildesley Close by Care Plus, part of the Housing Plus Group.

According to local history records the area was known as Pencric, and was the capital of England for a day when Edgar signed a Royal Charter there in the 10th century.

Penkridge Civic Society helped choose the name for the development. Civic Society chairman David Calcroft, who attended the naming ceremony, said: "Housing Plus asked us to research suitable names for the scheme. Pencric is a great choice, because it's actually a historic name for Penkridge." As part of the naming ceremony development partners helped to demolish the remaining buildings on the former Silverdene care home site. The development is due for completion in the summer of 2014.

Debbie Griffiths, chief executive of Housing Plus Group, said: "This is the biggest development in Penkridge for some time."

Hospital visitors are hit by parking tickets

MORE than 70 parking tickets a month are being issued to drivers who illegally leave their cars near Cannock Hospital.

Motorists parking in Brunswick Road have been given 874 penalties, ranging from £25 to £75, over a 12-month period, according to new figures.

Community trust plan is put forward for building

CANNOCK Hospital is to open up empty buildings to house public services under plans to safeguard the Brunswick Road site's future.

The hospital would become a local community trust providing a range of services under the scheme.

The move follows the news that only 40 per cent of the building is used, losing the cash-strapped, Mid-Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust £8m a year.

The idea was put forward by Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley at the inaugural meeting of a 15-strong working group of district, county and NHS bosses.

Stuart Poyner, chief executive of the Staffordshire and Stone-on-Trent NHS Partnership, pledged to move his 100 staff from their current base at Ivy House in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock, to the hospital if the rent was affordable.

Staffordshire County Council has said it will look into moving its adult social care service to the site.

More GP surgeries, a library and day centre are suggested potential uses. The MP has even suggested converting parts of the hospital into classrooms.

Cannock Chase District Council leader George Adamson said the figure highlights a clear lack of spaces at the hospital.

"There is not enough parking at the hospital," he said. "Many times the parking area is full and people are forced to look elsewhere to park, some are obviously leaving their cars in places illegally."

"There is no easy resolution - the only one I can think of is for the hospital trust to buy new land for parking."

Aaron Cummins, finance director at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, which runs the hospital, said parking was provided at the hospital for patients and visitors.

Reason

He said: "There is plenty of public parking at nearby council-run car parks and there should be no reason for parking illegally on Brunswick Road, whether people are visiting the hospital or the adjacent shops."

Car parking charges at the hospital range from costing 80p for up to 30 minutes up to £6 for up to 24 hours.

The number of parking tickets issued in Brunswick Road was released by Cannock Chase District Council.

The street is part of a list of the top 10 areas for parking fines in the district for the period from October last year to September 17.

After Brunswick Road, 749 tickets were issued in Church Street, Cannock, and 606 at the town's Market Place.

Making a splash to aid Darcy

Freda Cregreen, aged 63, has raised £2,000 for Darcy Blakeman, four, also pictured

A GREAT Wyrley woman made a big splash when she swam 31 lengths for charity. Freda Cregreen did not learn to swim until she was 50. The 63-year-old took the plunge to raise money for her sick neighbour.

The grandmother from Great Wyrley raised more than £2,000 from the sponsored swim at Bloxwich Leisure Centre.

The money will go towards a holiday at Disneyland Florida for four-year-old Darcy Blakeman who has been diagnosed with an acute form of leukaemia.

"She's a lovely little girl and it's terrible to think she's got to suffer," said Freda, of Walsall Road. "I wanted to do something and my husband started the ball rolling with £100."

Freda took just under an hour to complete the distance with Darcy's brother, Toby, aged seven, as lap counter.

Van hire firm set to double revenue

VAN hire group Northgate, which runs a depot in Cannock, says it is on track to double its revenue to £4.4m this year.

The boost in retail hire income is credited to van hire rates as low as £25 a day, while website bookings for the company have increased by 312 per cent on last year, mostly due to more people looking for a van for personal use.

The company also introduced standardised pricing across its UK depot network to make it more competitive. It as also tried to make it easier for the public to hire a van, and has introduced a loyalty car system.

Jonathan Pearce, marketing manager at Northgate Vehicle Hire, said: "We relaunched our retail hire offering in January and, since then, it has quite literally gone through the roof."

Northgate runs a 52,000-strong hire fleet from more than 60 locations nationwide.

This summer the company, which employs more than 2,000 people, introduced a free shares scheme for staff who have been at Northgate for more than 12 months.

Party time as shop beats the recession

A PARTY shop in Cannock has beaten the recession to celebrate its fifth birthday. Carabou Events, in Hawks Green District Centre, Heath Hayes, was opened in 2007 during the economic decline, by sisters-in-law Debbie Bennett and Claire Davenport.

The store, which sells balloons and table decorations and hires out chocolate fountains and chair covers, will be handing out money-off vouchers to its customers to mark the occasion.

Passing

Miss Bennett said: "We set up the business during the recession and we're off the beaten track so we don't get passing traffic."

"We rely on word of mouth but still get a lot of repeat customers."

"All the staff work to a high standard and do the job to the best of their ability. I think our secret to success is to be genuine and treat customers how we would want to be treated ourselves."

Display by historians

THE Landor Local History Society of Rugeley is taking its 'Happiest Days, Aspects of Childhood' display to the Brewery Street shopping centre this weekend. It is the last chance this year to see the display.

Members will be in attendance on Saturday, November 10. Publications 'The Murder of Christina Collins', 'Looking back at Rugeley' and printed notecards with images of the town will all be on sale.

Tickets will also be available for the forthcoming talk on 'The Titanic and its Midlands Connection'.

Former surgery under hammer

A FORMER doctor's surgery in Cannock will be auctioned off later this month.

The large double fronted detached building in Stafford Road, the former surgery of Dr A.J. Thompson, has eight rooms and a large rear car park.

The property has an estimate of £100-120,000 and will go under the hammer with Boot & Son on Monday November 26 at 7pm at Bar Sport in High Green.

Auction house trio complete uphill task

The intrepid Penkridge trio, Ben Gamble, Libby Vjestica, front centre - and Tom Waldron, second right, at the top of Snowdon

INTREPID colleagues from a Penkridge firm have conquered Britain's three highest peaks to raise money for a local hospice.

The trio, who work for auction house Cuttlestones, took on the Three Peaks Challenge, finishing just minutes outside their 24-hour deadline.

But they still managed to raise more than £2,500 in sponsorship, pushing their fundraising total for Stafford-based Katharine House Hospice over the £8,000 mark. The firm, which opened a base in Wolverhampton 18 months ago, has set a £10,000 target for the year.

Managing director Ben Gamble joined two of his managers Tom Waldron and Libby Vjestica on the climb, completing Ben Nevis in Scotland, Scafell Pike in the Lake District and Snowdon in Wales in 24 hours and 40 minutes.

Ben said bad weather and road delays had slowed the team down.

"When we took on this challenge we knew it was going to be tough, but nothing quite prepares you for the travelling or sleep deprivation on top of three gruelling climbs. Ben Nevis was the hardest climb technically, and Scafell in the dark was tough - but Snowdon was the most difficult mentally and physically."

He added: "Not only by that time were we exhausted, but we'd all got old sports injuries that had started to play up."

"But it's a great way to raise money and feel like you've genuinely earned every penny."

Children's festive gift as new skatepark to be built

A NEW £30,000 skatepark could be built in Norton Canes by the end of the year. It will replace the current facility, which stands behind the community centre in Brownhills Road.

The current skatepark has been in place for around five years. The new facility has been made possible by a grant from the Veolia Environmental Trust, which supports community projects through the government's Landfill Communities Fund.

Parish council chairman Councillor John Beddows said he hoped it would be ready by Christmas.

He said: "I want all the kids to have a nice Christmas present and they are all excited about it, though I've spoken to."

"Hopefully it will be completed by then, but certainly within six months I would have thought."

"It's absolutely wonderful for the kids. We need something to lift our spirits."

"We always knew we needed something more for children. The kids tell me that the current skate park is very basic. They wanted a little bit more."

Developer

The parish council's special projects committee made its application to the trust around six months ago and received acceptance last week.

Specific plans for the facility's layout have yet to be decided and a developer has yet to be contracted.

Councillor Beddows said: "It's got to be done pretty quickly but also it's got to be done properly. Once we've got the contractor to do it I wouldn't think it would take them long."

He added: "On behalf of the council, the residents of Norton Canes and especially the children, a big vote of thanks is extended to the Veolia Trust for their generosity."

The council has a fund of £223,600 to use annually on fencing repairs but the housing policy development committee is recommending a £15,000 increase.

The council says it will prioritise 6ft boundary fencing, where it adjoins a public space. They vow that old fencing will be replaced by better quality wood.

Callum Groucutt, aged 12, who swam 22 miles - the equivalent of the English Channel

Callum's in at the deep end for Aspire

A 12-year-old boy has swum the equivalent of the English Channel for charity.

Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School pupil Callum Groucutt clocked up 22 miles at Bloxwich Leisure Centre, swimming 1,800 lengths over a number of days.

His achievement was part of the Aspire Channel Swim 2012 challenge.

In doing so, he raised more than £200 for the charity, which supports people with spinal injuries.

Proud

His mother Donna, aged 35, from Bloxwich, said: "I'm so proud of him, he's worked so hard to complete it, going every day on his own to raise the money for charity."

"We all went to see him finish and gave him a big cheer - he's allowed a big rest now."

Callum would go to the pool up to twice a day over the 10-week period to complete the 22 miles, briefly putting aside football and his studies.

Mrs Groucutt said: "People have been amazed at how far he has gone."

To sponsor Callum, visit www.justgiving.com/callum-groucutt

A READER writes: "If convicts in British jails are allowed to vote, will they be able to vote for police commissioners?"

AND talking of jail, did we all notice in Downton Abbey (ITV) that Mr Bates was as fit as a flea in the exercise yard at York Prison but limped and used a walking stick when he was set free? Very dodgy.

OWN up. As a fungal infection threatens to wipe out Britain's ash trees, how many of us can actually identify an ash tree?

*****

OUR changing language. An American forecaster, describing the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy, referred to deep flooding as "multi-fet inundation."

*****

WE may not think much of weather forecasters but consider this. Superstorm Sandy struck a population of 50 million Americans who had been given several days' warning. About 60 fatalities have been reported. In the days before weather forecasting, the Great Storm of November 1703 ripped across an unprepared England with a population of just five million. In the space of 24 hours it killed 8,000 people.

HOW computers work. I bought a pair of boots on eBay. The next day, I logged on to find that eBay had already selected items I might be interested in buying, namely three more pairs of boots. Computers don't understand that when you have bought a pair of boots, the last thing you are likely to want is another pair of boots. I was actually looking for a vegetable rack. Geeks are always talking about artificial intelligence, as though it is just around the corner. When they develop a computer program that can make the connection between boots and a vegetable rack, that will be the time to start worrying.

TWO developments on the burglary front deserve watching. The first is the Government announcing open season on burglars caught red-handed. Check the small print carefully, but the new guidelines seem to suggest we can whack them very hard indeed. The second development is the news this week that half of all burglars, including many with more than 12 convictions, are given fines or community service rather than jail. How long will it be before a householder batters a burglar to death and the dead man's family sue the judge for giving the burglar his liberty, and thus allowing him to carry on robbing, instead of locking him safely up in prison?

THE Duchess of Cornwall has apparently booked into a "holistic health centre" in southern India for a regime of "spiritually healing" ayurvedic massages. She is dabbling in what some people call alternative medicine, some call complementary medicine and others call complete cobbles. One of the most outspoken sceptics was Nigella Lawson's first husband, the late, great columnist John Diamond. When he found himself dying of a particularly cruel form of cancer in the late 1990s, Diamond investigated some of the alternatives to Western medicine and concluded that West was best. From beyond the grave, Diamond has this message for Camilla: "It's easy for the well-fed metropolitan with time and money on his hands to talk about dealing with his chronic symptoms with ayurvedic medicine or Chinese herbal therapies... but if you go to the countries where those remedies are all they have, you'll find them crying out for good old Western antibiotics, painkillers and all the rest of the modern and expensive pharmacopoeia."

INCIDENTALLY, the Duchess is said to be "taking a break". From what?

College named as skills show sponsor

SOUTH Staffordshire College has signed up to sponsor the UK's biggest skills and careers event ahead of its launch.

The Skills Show will aim to inspire young people to learn about vocational courses and apprenticeships. It is taking place from November 15 to 17 at the NEC in Birmingham.

The college, which has its Cannock campus on Becroft Road, will have its own stand showcasing its courses and offering learners hands-on experience in hairdressing, cake decorating and floristry, among other skills.

It has also been chosen to host three activities from the show's 'Have a Go' programme - television presenting, plant propagation and building a non-powered vehicle for a 'downhill challenge'.

Graham Morley, chief executive principal of South Staffordshire College, said: "As a sponsor of the Skills Show, South Staffordshire College is delighted to see the UK's biggest careers event being brought to the Midlands.

"Helping students to become work-ready is at the heart of everything we do and we are proud to be part of an event that will help thousands of young people to make informed decisions about their careers."

Ross Maloney, CEO of The Skills

Show, said: "We are delighted to secure the support of South Staffordshire College."

"The success of The Skills Show is built on partnerships with key public, further education sector agencies and business sponsorship and their hands-on support and involvement really brings to life our aim to inspire young people to the opportunities that developing vocational skills can bring."

Model citizens to get priority over housing

COUNCIL bosses in Cannock say they want to reward model citizens rather than penalise troublemakers when it comes to the housing waiting list.

New plans have emerged that will see good neighbours or community-minded residents given priority for houses.

Councillor George Adamson, the leader of Cannock Chase District Council, said: "Rather than penalising people all the time, it's good to reward them as well."

The waiting list has grown to almost 3,000 this year and a shortage of family houses is a concern to the authority. Just 53 four-bedroom properties are available but district chiefs are determined that their housing stock goes to the most deserving.

Behaviour

The latest move is part of proposed changes to the way council houses across the Chase are allocated.

In a report, strategic housing manager Janet Baldesera said: "The change allows the council to take account of good as well as bad behaviour."

"The council could give greater priority to applicants who have been model tenants or have benefited the community."

Councillor Adamson said

by Marion Brennan

this was the first time that the authority had looked to repay would-be tenants.

"Good behaviour needs to be recognised," he said.

"No formal process has been set up to assess what might be deemed 'good' or 'model' behaviour but we would be looking at work people have done for charity or help they have given neighbours."

Police checks for all housing applicants were introduced in April as a means of excluding people as a result of their past behaviour. Previously, police checks were used only if applicants disclosed a criminal conviction on the form.

The inspections are carried out by Staffordshire Police free of charge.

People who have been in the Armed Forces or are fostering children are also prioritised in Cannock.

The latest policy changes are to go before the cabinet for approval.

Psychic Ed getting into the spirit of Christmas

PSYCHIC Mystic Ed will be on hand at a Christmas charity fair in Rugeley next month. Mind body and spirit shop, Purpleluna, in Hedgesford, will host the event at Hawkesyard Estate, Armitage Park, on Sunday December 2.

Shop owner, Jill Bonney, said: "We will have a tarot reader, crafts, a raffle and a stand for children to make Christmas gifts. All the money raised will go towards Gentleshaw Wildlife Centre."

The fair begins at 10am until 4.30pm and there will be a small entrance fee. Hot and cold food and drink will be available all day.

A challenge of endurance

Personal trainer Anthony Stewart cheered on by fundraiser James Lunney

IT'S onwards and upwards for runners taking part in a gruelling challenge over 10 Staffordshire hills.

The 5.4 mile Endurance Challenge in aid of Katharine House Hospice is run over a series of hills on Cannock Chase. It does not take place until next February but organisers are hoping for an early rush of entries.

The run will start and end at Milford Common and is sponsored by Nuffield

Health in Cannock. Participants must be at least 15-years-old.

Fundraiser James Lunney said: "Endurance Challenge 2013 will really test the mettle of everyone who takes part but at the same time will leave them feeling a real sense of achievement at the end."

The run takes place on Sunday, February 24. Entry is £10. Register online at www.kh.hospice.org.uk or call 01785 270808.

Warning of delays as work nears end

BUSINESS owners, shoppers and commuters in and around Hedgesford are being warned that the roads around the Victoria Shopping Centre development may face disruption for the next few weeks due to site traffic.

The £50m complex is reaching its second stage of construction and will see the number of contractors increase. The road most likely affected will be Rugeley Road as the car park at the Chase Gateway development is to be used as a temporary parking site for workers.

Completed

Councillor Diane Todd, Cannock Chase Council's town centre regeneration leader, said: "Works over the next few weeks will make sure that Victoria Shopping Park is completed, ready for the opening of the new Tesco store and I'd like to apologise for any inconvenience that may be caused."

The new centre will feature a Tesco store with more than 600 parking spaces, a terrace with big name retailers and a community facility to replace the Aquarius ballroom. Bus facilities have already been completed on Victoria Street to deal with the increased footfall in the town centre.

Appeal on hedgehogs

A HEDGEHOG rescue centre is overrun with the spiky creatures, many of which need a good meal.

More and more of the animals are being handed in to West Midland Hedgehog Rescue Centre after being concerned that they are underweight for winter.

Joan Lockley turned her home in Leveson Avenue, Cheslin Hay into the rescue centre and is now looking to rehome 40 hedgehogs.

She wants to find people who will take in the animals, feed them and keep them warm, until they hibernate and can be placed back in the wild. Anyone who wants to help should call the rescue centre on 01922 419532.

Pet owners can join in vets' birthday party

A GREAT Wyrley vets is inviting clients to celebrate its birthday next week. The 387 Veterinary Centre on Walsall Road, turns five on Monday November 12. Cupcakes will be available in reception for all pet owners to mark the anniversary.

"It's been an exciting journey," said vet and practice owner Hamish Duncan. "It's hard to believe that five years ago we converted part of the existing house at 387 Walsall Road into a veterinary surgery."

"We were delighted to see seven clients on our first day of trading as we had no idea who would turn up – now we treat approximately 200 pets a week."

Hamish added: "The practice went through a big expansion in 2011, and additions included a dedicated 13-space car park, two new consulting rooms, a large waiting and reception area, a designated operating theatre and a cat ward."

It's not just the premises that have grown, he added. The practice opened in November 2007 with a vet, a head nurse and a part-time receptionist. Now, it employs eight staff including two vets and three fully qualified nurses.

Hamish said: "We are extremely grateful to all our clients, many of whom we've got to know really well, and who have made 387 Vets possible."

The Veterinary Centre are inviting clients to join them for cake between 8.30am and 6.30pm on Monday.

Celebration time as boy is given all-clear from cancer

by Tim Spiers

AN INSPIRATIONAL 11-year-old who has battled leukaemia since he was five has been given the all-clear by doctors. Jack Groom celebrated the news in style with a fundraising party.

The youngster, from Norton Canes held a party, attended by more than 2,000 people at the Four Ashes pub in Wolverhampton. Family, friends and fellow cancer sufferers joined in to help Jack celebrate and raise money at the same time. The event included a fun fair and fireworks and was organised by modified car network Streetfreaks.

Funds from the evening, will go to Help Harry Help Others. The charity was pioneered by fellow inspirational youngster Harry Moseley from Birmingham who lost his battle with a brain tumour in October 2011. Jack said he wanted to thank everyone for the support he'd had over the past six years.

"Cancer was the worst but without it I wouldn't have met so many amazing people who are my friends for life," he said.

Mum Linda, aged 43, said she and husband Des, 45, had actually spent most of the past six years laughing, such is Jack's vitality and trying to treat every day as if it was his last.

Pinching

Linda said: "Jack leads and we follow. We cried for two days when he heard he'd got the all-clear and Jack had to keep pinching himself that it was true."

The youngster also helps others in their fight against cancer and offers advice to people young and old, such as Stuart Howarth and Michelle Porter, who attended the party.

Also among the guests was Britain's Got Talent contestant Stuart Arnold of Nottingham, who made a name for himself with his impressions of Arnold Schwarzenegger.

Mum Linda added: "Jack just teaches people never to give up."

"He doesn't care how old people are – he's got the knowledge because he's been through it. I'm exceptionally proud of him."

Photographer loses top title over changing skies

David Byrne's image of Lindisfarne Castle which won him the Landscape Photographer of the Year award

A PHOTOGRAPHER from Cannock has been stripped of a top national award and £10,000 prize money for digitally manipulating his winning picture.

David Byrne won the Take a View Landscape Photographer of the Year award for his striking image of upturned fishing boats with Lindisfarne Castle in the background.

But the picture has now been disqualified after it emerged the 43-year-old had added clouds using Photoshop. Two other photographers had written on their blogs how the image could not have been captured without digital manipulation.

One, Tim Parkin, used red lines to show how lights and shadows were not achievable using only a camera. Mr Byrne said he had removed some of the moored boats in the middle of the harbour and made the sky look more dramatic by adding a few clouds to the image.

"I added the clouds because the sky was a bit boring," he said. "Unfortunately, while I do not feel like I have done anything wrong, I did not read the regulations and it does say that replacing the sky is not allowed."

"The purists out there were not happy. I treat my photography as art and I try to make the best looking picture."

Mr Byrne said since winning the competition he had been unsettled by e-mails from other photographers.

Competition founder Charlie Waite said: "It appears there was no deliberate intention to deceive the judges but the level of manipulation means the photograph gained an unfair advantage."

Generation game

Christina Jones with daughter Hannah, aged 17, and mother Judy Deakin at the Generations shop

A FORMER teacher is playing the generation game after setting up her own vintage shop in Cannock.

Christina Jones, who taught public service at Kingsmead Technology College in Hednesford for six years, has launched Generations in Heath Hayes, selling clothes mainly from the 1940s, 50s and 60s.

The name reflects the fact that her mother, 58-year-old former secretary Judy Deakin, and daughter, student Hannah Jones, 18, are also very much part of the venture. Christina, aged 39, said: "I've always had a passion for vintage. The shop is fitted out with my own personal collection, things like a gramophone. The chance to work with my family was so appealing, I had to grab it."

She used her redundancy money from Kingsmead as capital towards the cost of opening the Hednesford Road business.

More than 200 join in petition on road safety

MORE than 200 people have signed a petition calling for safety improvements on a road in Cheslyn Hay following the death of a young boy.

Mitchell Clifton, aged seven, died last month after being struck by a van at the entrance to the car park at the Co-op store in Landywood Lane.

His mother Michelle has since started an online petition. Called 'A Mother's Plea, please help stop another tragedy happening in our village', the petition says traffic-calming measures are desperately needed along the stretch of road and especially at the Co-Op entrance. A total of 239 people have signed it.

Pending

However, council bosses have revealed any improvements made would hinge on the recommendations of the coroner.

Staffordshire County Council's highways chief Mike Maryon said investigations had taken place to see if there was a history of accidents there but that was not the case.

He said: "At the moment the full details of the accident are not known. An inquest is pending and of course we will investigate further if the coroner recommends any further road safety measures."

The inquest was opened and adjourned on October 5. District councillor Mac Harris said he had opposed the plans for the supermarket 10 years ago as he considered it to be a dangerous junction.

"It was a very unfortunate accident and my sympathies go to the family and also the van driver. I do believe the county council does need to look at the site very carefully," he said.

The driver of the white Mercedes Sprinter security van involved in the incident was a 45-year-old man from Cheshire.

Site value falls amid delays by Labour

IN response to George Adamson's letter of October 18, the Conservative Group on Cannock Chase Council wants houses of all sizes, private and social to be built.

He is aware that if the council does not designate where these houses are built, and soon, then we will be dictated to where such developments do take place.

Labour can then blame everyone else for the indecision and failure to house the people of the district.

Yes it was down to a Lib Dem/Tory Coalition that the stadium was demolished, but it had fallen in to disrepair and misuse. In its final year it generated £27,700 in income but cost the council £370,900 to run.

Due to Labour's delaying tactics over the site's development, the land value fell from £20m to £4m.

Make views known on MPs' pay

I NOTE that the IPSA (Independent Parliamentary Standards Authority), has announced a consultation period where anyone can give opinions on the pay, pensions and expenses of MPs.

I will add my two pennyworth to the debate and I urge anyone else to do the same. Just go to the IPSA website and follow the links to MPs' pay.

Firstly expenses. The only expenses that should be open to an MP should be for a constituency office and one personal aid or researcher. Overnight accommodation only if the commute from constituency to Parliament is over 140 miles one way. MPs can then join the rest of the commuting public suffering unrealistic train fare hikes, car sharing, delays and better application of time management.

MP pensions should be downgraded in the same way all other public sector employees have had theirs butchered. No more final salary pension and a greater emphasis put on the individual MP to make greater contributions.

Maybe the current pay scale is about right but I would have serious misgivings should there be an increase in MPs' pay while teachers, police and pensioners are all taking real term cuts to living standards.

I also would look at the competency of our MPs. Any government that has to make 39 policy U-turns in a 30-month period cannot be considered competent. Worse still are the "nodding donkeys" who are too cowardly to stand up to the Party Whips and vote against such poorly thought through policy.

MR C FRANCE

Cuts – but debt has increased

THE pantomime season of the party political conferences, is over for another year. And what have we learned? Something we already knew, that the Liberals are untrustworthy.

Nick Clegg explained his promise on student fees only applied if he won the election. If he thought his party could win outright victory, he was deluding himself.

If he didn't, he was making promises he couldn't keep.

Labour? Their leader wins a standing ovation for promising to save the NHS. Those cheering forgot that Miliband and his brother were members of the last government that wholeheartedly embraced the Tory policy of private finance initiatives, that have bled public services dry, including hospitals.

As for the Tories, they have reduced the budget deficit by a quarter, so for all their cuts, they are still increasing the debt.

PHILLIP BRYANT

Government intent on punishing less well-off

THE Tories were in a state of panic as they tried to divert their 'nasty party' image at the Party conference in Birmingham – intensifying their attacks on the less well-off by announcing another £10bn of benefit cuts, desperately trying to hide the fact that they are strangling the economy.

To my mind, this government that proclaims 'we are all in it together', is still hell bent on punishing the unemployed, disabled, poor, middle classes and pensioners, while bankers and the rich continue to live a lavish lifestyle, and appear to remain untouched from the punitive cuts that are being meted out to so many ordinary families.

The coalitions seem to want to deny younger people a home, and cut benefits to families. However, having cheated and bullied the disabled and sick they are now limiting child benefit, and rights at work are being undermined on the orders of big Tory donors.

Praise for hospital

THERE has been a lot of criticism and bad reports of the NHS and Stafford Hospital. Therefore I would like to praise M Gendi Heather, Phil and all of the staff in the Breast Care Unit at Stafford Hospital.

The care I received pre-op during my stay in Ward 8 and post-op has been excellent.

On each visit I feel like a friend, the staff reassure you and always have time to talk.

The cleanliness of the hospital was faultless. Thank you Stafford Hospital

Work with and not against each other

I WOULD like to thank Councillor Janos Toth for his response regarding housing (Letters, October 25). I realise the council is working with housing associations but what I was stating as a matter of fact was that whole council housing estates are being demolished yet only a very small portion of the new houses being built on the site are for people on the council housing list.

The rest are sold by the housing associations or rented out at far higher rents. I pointed this out as the council leader was trying to blame the Government for all the council's failings as far as the shortfall in affordable housing was concerned. I think people should stop trying to bluff people just to make political gains. The sooner all the parties work together instead of against each other for the benefit of the taxpayers the better off we will be.

Police investigate a link after spate of shop raids

Andy Humphries, of Vogue Boutique, Burntwood, and a damaged door

DETECTIVES are probing a link between a string of raids at shops throughout the area. Fashion shop Vogue Boutique in Burntwood was among those targeted.

Owner Andrew Humphries heard a gang trying to smash into the store but he managed to scare them off. A toy shop in Rugeley has also been raided and toy helicopters taken.

Staffordshire Police is now investigating any possible link between them and another incident at a fashion store in Little Aston.

Mr Humphries, who lives in a flat above the ladies fashion shop, said he was reading at around 11.45pm on Tuesday, October 30, when he heard a noise.

Dived

"The first I realised something was happening was when there was a bang," he said. "I hadn't heard the car pull up outside."

"I looked out the window and saw three men trying to get in the shop so I shouted a load of profanities at them. They dived in the car and it sped off."

The police were called and arrived just minutes later and went to search for a dark red Citroen C3 Picasso. No stock was taken and Mr Humphries said: "I think if they had got in they would have cleaned us out."

Earlier, at 8.30pm, police were called to a burglary at Chase Lines on Boston Industrial Estate in Rugeley.

The previous night at 10.30pm, clothes were stolen from fashion store Abigails on Little Aston Lane. Anyone with information is asked to call Staffordshire Police on 101.

A CHURCH congregation which moved home to make way for a ring road has celebrated 40 years in their place of worship.

Green Lane Baptist Church, Walsall, was formerly known as Stafford Street Baptist Church situated at the traffic light junction with Littleton Street West.

In October 1972 the members moved from the ageing 135-year-old imposing town centre chapel to a modernist building a short distance away, between the A34 Green Lane and Burrowes Street.

Baptists first made their mark in Walsall about 180 years ago when according to church historians there at least one pub in every street to the town and education opportunities were poor.

The founders set up Goodall Street Baptist in 1832 near the market hill, but in 1846 the congregation split. A group of 70 members held separate meetings in the Guildhall and the Black Boy pub before leasing a piece of land in Stafford Street from Lord Hatherton.

by Deborah Hardiman

It was these rebels who created the Stafford Street Baptist Church, which opened for worship on January 25, 1847. It maintained its presence there for more than a century until plans for the town's ring road unfolded.

Special

Sunday school rooms were just 6ft from the line of the proposed ring road so the fellowship had no choice but to relocate after lengthy negotiations with Walsall Council.

The minister at the time was the Rev Philip Savage, who moved on from the Green Lane flock about 10 years later. A special celebration service to mark the ruby milestone was held on October 21 with guests including Mayor of Walsall Councillor Dennis Anson and Mayoress Mrs Kathleen Anson.

Others included former members who travelled from Dorset, London and Somerset to attend.

Long-serving member Nora Pitt, first attended Stafford Street in 1943. She has served as Brown Owl and Captain of the 6th Walsall Guides, which was based there.

"The 40 years has flown. Stafford Street is still as clear in my mind as ever," Mrs Pitt, now aged 87, of Essington, said.

"All my family was involved in the scouting movement. We also used to do a lot of pantos and my husband Tom made the scenery. We also organised the jumble sales and over the years I have sewn a lot of curtains for the old building and for Green Lane too." Oldest member Estella Moffatt, 92, was among the first wave of Caribbean immigrants who joined in the 1960s, after arriving in Walsall along with her nephew Theophilus Anderson, who served as deacon. He returned to Jamaica before the new building was completed.

Members of Green Lane Baptist Church celebrating the anniversary

Mrs Moffatt said: "When I arrived from Jamaica in 1956 Stafford Street was the first church I attended because I was a Baptist member out there so I eventually settled here with my husband Ezra, who died in 1984."

"I remember there was a choir at Stafford Street and the church was full every Sunday. I have many memories of trips to resorts like Blackpool and Southport. And the Women's Guild meetings were fun. "We don't get as many folks as we used to, but I try to get to church every week."

Minister, the Rev Bob Morris has been leader of the 55-strong congregation for four years, taking over from the Rev Ron Mason.

Mr Morris said: "Although the church is celebrating the 40th anniversary of its current building, we recognise the longer heritage of the church as a community of God's people going back into the 19th Century."

MP in EU budget cut call

CHASE MP Aidan Burley voted against his party line and in support of cutting the EU budget.

He was one of 51 Tory MPs who teamed up with Labour to demand that Prime Minister David Cameron call for curbs to European Union spending, despite pressure from party whips.

The House of Commons debate came ahead of key talks between European leaders to discuss member states' contributions to the budget for the next seven years. The European Commission's proposed budget for 2014-2020 would see a five per cent increase in spending on the current seven-year period.

Savings

The amendment calling to cut the budget in real terms was passed on October 31 by 307 votes to 294 – but it is not binding.

Mr Burley said: "At a time when we are making necessary savings across government departments and national governments across the EU are facing deep austerity it is simply not acceptable for the European Union to want to increase its own budget.

"If the EU commission gets its way, taxpayers will soon be handing over £22,000 to Brussels every minute, which is more than many of my constituents earn in a year.

"This is simply not fair in the current economic climate and is why I had no hesitation in standing up for hard pressed taxpayers in Cannock Chase."

Action taken to combat nuisance at town shelter

ACTION has been taken to improve an anti-social behaviour hotspot in Cannock town centre. Cannock Chase Council and Staffordshire Police has joined forces to make the public shelter in Church Street safer.

Benches have been removed to stop gangs congregating there and a sign has been installed reminding people it is being monitored by CCTV.

Councillor Mike Holder, Cannock Chase Council crime and partnerships leader, said: "It is not acceptable for a small minority of people to cause a real nuisance for shoppers and visitors and the police will be taking action if they are seen drinking in public."

Tom's on the ball in bid to win pro deal

Burntwood footballer Tom Covell, aged 18, who could land a pro deal with Swindon Town or Leyton Orient

A TALENTED young player from Burntwood has made it through to the second stage of a competition that could land him a professional contract with a Football League club.

Winger Tom Covell, aged 18, impressed judges in the first round of testing for Samsung's 'Win A Pro Contract' competition last month.

Currently on a Youth Football Training Scholarship with Chasetown FC, Australian-born Tom moved to Italy aged 16 to join the Ascoli Football Academy. He played there for 13 months before being scouted by the West Ham Academy where he trialled for two weeks, but was not taken on.

After a week in boot camp with both clubs, two winners will be picked by Swindon manager Paolo Di Canio and Leyton Orient boss Russell Slade, and invited to sign a professional playing contract in January 2013. It is the third year the competition has been held, with Leyton Orient entering the fray for the first time.

Last year's winner Chris Smith has already made his Swindon first team debut. Tom's father Lee said: "We are extremely proud parents. "Thomas has made many sacrifices since leaving Australia. We both know he's still got a lot of hard work in front of him."

The top 11 players will be selected for the final at either Swindon's County Ground or Leyton Orient's Matchroom Stadium towards the end of the year.

Selected

A CONSERVATION manager could be appointed to promote the Staffordshire Hoard. The role, with a salary of £27,500 a year, has been created by Birmingham Museums. The application details state the job will be based at the Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery. The successful applicant must have a relevant degree, experience in the management of an archaeological find or large museum collection, along with enthusiasm and knowledge of metals and Anglo Saxon collections.

Boy, 12, to face crown court on arson charge

A BOY has appeared in court accused of causing up to £110,000 of damage to a house. The 12-year-old appeared before Cannock magistrates accused of setting fire to a bed in an upstairs room. He will be sent to crown court to be dealt with by a judge.

The court heard that it would cost at least £80,000 and possibly as much as £110,000 to rebuild the house.

The boy, who cannot be named, is charged with arson with intent or being reckless as to whether life was endangered. He did not enter a plea when he appeared in court last week. The case was adjourned until January 2 when he will be committed to the crown court.

Volunteers could keep estate up and running

SCORES of volunteers will be recruited to help safeguard the future of Shugborough Hall. It comes after news that half the estate's front-line staff were to lose their jobs.

Cost-cutting measures also include the axing of the popular Candlelight Christmas celebrations, closing on Tuesdays and shortening the season by nine days.

Photo club putting on its annual exhibition

CANNOCK Photographic Society has launched its 55th Annual Exhibition at Chasewater Innovation Centre.

Admission is free to the club's presentation, which features work by members and runs until November 25.

Around 200 prints will be on display, which were selected and judged by David Gibbins, a respected national and international exhibitor. The awards were presented at the society's most recent meeting.

Cannock Photographic Society has had a good year with success in many national and international salons. Club member David Byrne achieved "Take a View" Landscape Photographer of the Year 2012 in a national contest.

Damage of £1,000 as ball smashes window

A MAN caused more than £1,000 of damage when he kicked a football through the windows of a store in Cannock, a court heard. Benjamin Kidd escaped with a conditional discharge after Cannock magistrates heard he had turned his life around in the past year.

The 23-year-old had been playing with the ball outside Poundland in Market Place with friends in August.

Kidd struck the ball through three of the windows, shattering the glass, although claimed the third was already broken. Pleading guilty to criminal damage amounting to £1,061, he told the court: "It was accidental. I was aiming for the wall, it was just bad luck."

The former Cannock man, now of Bootle, must pay £500 compensation.

Fir deal as Christmas tree prices are frozen

CHRISTMAS tree prices at Cannock Chase are being pegged at last year's because of the continuing tough economic climate.

It is the second year running that the Birches Valley Centre has frozen prices. And despite a shortage of fir trees in Europe, staff at the centre say stocks are up to capacity.

Tree sales start at the centre on December 1. Santa will be arriving at the centre's grotto this year at 11am.

The Forestry Centre will be open to the public on weekends from 10am to 5pm and Friday evenings from 4pm to 8pm.

A huge number of real Christmas trees including fir, spruce, pine and pot-grown trees will be on offer as well as stands and wreaths.

Cabins

Staff also revealed that for the first time the regular craft fair will be staged in German Market-style log cabins.

The centre runs the biggest Christmas tree sale in Britain. Some 10,000 Christmas trees will go on sale, costing from £25 to

by Marion Brennan

£125 for a 15ft tree. The price of an average-sized tree will continue to be £40.

The news comes as it emerged hundreds of thousands of people nationwide could struggle to find a Christmas tree this year due to a shortage in Europe.

Growers are reporting that unusually severe late-spring frosts killed 25 per cent of the harvest in Sweden alone, with 50,000 trees being lost.

The worst shortage affects trees higher than 6ft, says the British Christmas Tree Growers Association.

Andy Coggins, Forestry Commission recreation manager at Cannock Chase, said: "We realise people are still having a hard time and have decided to keep prices at 2011 and 2010 prices."

SNAP cash raised

SCOOTER enthusiasts in Cannock have donated £500 to charity after holding a fun day. The Cannock Crusaders raised the cash for Special Needs Adventure Playground (SNAP) in Pye Green Road.

The money was collected earlier this year through the fun day at Woody's Bar in Market Street, Hednesford.

Carol Turner, SNAP supervisor, said: "We want to say a big thank you to the Crusaders for their help. Every penny counts. We also want to thank people for supporting their event."

Historical society meets

THE next meeting of Norton Canes Historical Society & Family History Group takes place next Tuesday, November 13. Dave Battersby from Bridgtown Historical Society will be showing old photos of Cannock and Bridgtown. The meeting takes place at Norton Canes Library, Burntwood road, from 7-9pm and admission is free.

A pleasant day out in Cotswolds

CHASE TERRACE LADIES

ON October 18, members enjoyed their annual Fish & Chip supper which was provided by club funds and was very well organised by Dilys Barbara then devised a 1960s Quiz, which tested memories and caused much amusement.

On October 20, 29 Ladies visited Burford, considered to be the Southern Gateway to the Cotswolds. This is a beautiful small town with its high street sloping down from the high Wolds down to the River Windrush. Most of the buildings are made of yellow sandstone, ranging from Manor Houses to small cottages - all very picturesque.

There were also many pubs, restaurants, tea-shops and antique shops and the 15th Century Parish Church of St John Baptist provided plenty of sight-seeing for the many tourists.

After lunch the ladies continued on to Bourton-on-the-Water, which has been described as the 'Little Venice' of the Cotswolds.

There are many other attractions too, for example a motor museum and a model village. There were also many shops, cafes and pubs. Even the weather was on the ladies' side and they all enjoyed a pleasant day out.

At the meeting on November 1, Linda was giving a talk on the life and loves of Coco Chanel.

Guest tells club of surprise over MBE

Glynis Ward MBE who gave a talk to the guild

LAPLEY TREFOIL GUILD

GLYNIS Ward, MBE visited Lapley Trefoil Guild to share with members her experience of receiving the accolade in the New Year Honours list.

She talked of her surprise and disbelief at the initial unexpected contact from Buckingham Palace through to the actual presentation of the honour.

Glynis received the honour for voluntary work and services to conservation in the Cannock Chase Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and had received many congratulatory messages.

She talked of her search for just the right outfit to wear and actually wore it to the meeting so members could see it. She also passed around an album containing all the various correspondence she had received from the palace together with photographs taken on the day and other memorabilia.

Members also watched the official DVD of the ceremony.

Members all agreed she was well deserving of such an honour.

The Annual General Meeting followed at which the programme for 2013 was decided.

Scones, bingo and a quiz

CANNOCK WI

OCTOBER'S meeting was a social morning with members enjoying scones and playing bingo. This was followed by some trick quiz questions.

The president welcomed two guests, and wished a Happy Birthday to Rosemary Larkin, Jan Anderson and Valerie Craddock. She also thanked the ladies who took part in the Big Walk Little Splash event.

The WI Annual Lunch at The Rag restaurant will follow the meeting on January 10. Lichfield Cathedral have changed the date for the WI Federation Carol Service, it will now be held on Saturday December 22 at 3pm.

The November 8 meeting is at 10.30am in St Luke's Church Hall. The topic will be a belly dancing demonstration and the competition a dried flower arrangement.

Young Will flying high to earn his pilot licence

A HIGH-FLYING Rugeley teenager has just become the youngest person in the UK to obtain his pilot's licence.

Will Tyler flew unaccompanied at the first possible opportunity on his 16th birthday last October but was not eligible for a full licence until he was 17.

He achieved that following a two-hour test flight under difficult weather conditions on October 28, his 17th birthday.

He said: "I was a bit nervous as the winds were gusting at between 15 to 20 knots which is quite strong."

"It feels pretty good to have achieved it because I've been working towards this for the last three years."

Will's flying instructor Andy Collett, of Staffordshire Helicopters, based in Wychnor, near Lichfield, described the teenager as "a natural".

Helicopter

Proud father Dave Tyler, a self-employed builder from Longdon Green, Rugeley, presented his son with a helicopter flight for his 14th birthday, and he said he had taken to it straight away.

"We're very proud of him," he said.

The father-of-three, who was born in Bloxwich, said the whole family chipped in for lessons - at £100 for 20 minutes - for Christmas and birthdays.

Will, a pupil at The Friary School, Lichfield, also worked with his father during school holidays, earning money to put towards tuition fees.

He now plans to focus on his A-levels

Will Tyler of Rugeley, who has been granted a pilot's licence at the age of 17

but hopes to obtain his commercial pilot's wings in two years with the aim of taking up flying professionally.

Staffordshire Helicopters offers lessons and experience flights, as well as packages for special events - including dropping a bride or groom off on their wedding day.

It has been based at Wychnor for the past decade. The Robinson R22 Beta, R44 Raven I Clipper and Raven II helicopters all operate from the site.

As well as training for beginners, tutors run refresher courses for pilots with existing licences and conversion courses for aeroplane pilots.

Hairdresser to jet out on orphanage mercy trip

Linsey Matthews, of Gentleshaw, who is fundraising for an orphanage in Swaziland

A 19-year-old hairdresser from Gentleshaw will travel to Southern Africa in January to work with young orphans and victims of domestic violence.

Linsey Matthews of Chapel Lane, will spend three months in Swaziland supporting children and babies who have no parents. She will also be helping out at a drug rehabilitation centre.

Passion

The former Chase Terrace High School student has always had a passion to make a difference in people's lives and said now was the right time to do it.

"If I don't do it now I never will," she said. "I'm still at home and I'm single so now is a better time than any."

"I am quite nervous and I know my family are too, particularly my dad who worries about me. The longest I've ever been away from home is one week.

"I will celebrate my birthday while I'm over there on March 23, but this is what I want to do, I'm excited."

Miss Matthews is now fundraising to reach the total of £3,000 she needs to get her to Swaziland.

She added: "I've paid for my flights and insurance myself I just need to raise money to help me live while I'm over there. I've still got a bit of a way to go but I'm confident I'll reach my target."

A fancy-dress disco has been organised on Saturday November 24, at Burntwood Rugby Club at 7pm to raise money for the trip.

Tickets cost £6 and are available from Miss Matthews at Top Cut hair salon in Buds Road, Cannock Wood.

MP explains vote against own party on EU budget

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley said he voted against his own party over the European Union budget because he did not want to hand over more money to Brussels every minute than many people earned in a year.

Mr Burley was one of dozens of Tory MPs who teamed up with Labour to demand that David Cameron call for curbs to EU spending. The Commons debate came ahead of talks between leaders to discuss member states' contributions.

Mr Burley said: "If the EU commission gets its way, taxpayers will soon be handing over £22,000 to Brussels every minute, more than many of my constituents earn in a year."

Things could get hairy

Karate instructor Mike Carr, aged 25, before growing his moustache for the November charity campaign

THINGS are about to get hairy for a karate teacher from Rugeley. Mike Carr, chief instructor of the Stafford-based Ryu Shotokan Karate, will be growing a bushy moustache to raise money for prostate and testicular cancer charities during this month's Movember campaign.

He has even vowed to dye it ginger if he reaches his initial fundraising target of £100.

The 2nd Dan instructor, who lives on the Levett Grange development on Wolsley Road, said: "Most of my students are quite young, so they won't be able to join in, but I think it will go down quite well with them."

"I'm well on the way to my initial target, so it looks like it could happen."

Mr Carr, aged 25, said: "I've had close friends of a family affected and so I just want to do what I can. Movember is a great campaign and raises awareness for vital charities."

No festive fears from town boss

FESTIVE trade in Cannock will remain robust despite delays bringing in a cut-price parking scheme, the town centre manager has vowed.

Natal Chapman conceded that last-minute Christmas shoppers could shun Cannock but said she was otherwise confident that the impact of the setback would be minimal.

It was revealed last week that a six-month pilot scheme where shoppers are charged 50p to park for 30 minutes in new pay-and-display bays has been postponed until the New Year.

Transport chiefs are disappointed the scheme will not be in place to benefit shopkeepers in the run-up to Christmas.

Facilities

However, Ms Chapman dismissed their concerns. She said: "It's always good to be able to offer extra parking facilities, but if this would only be for half an hour then most people doing their Christmas shopping want longer than that anyway."

"If it's been put off until New Year I don't think it's going to have that much impact on the festive period, other than last-minute shoppers who might go elsewhere."

She added: "This will be good when it comes in, some people do just want to pop into town."

The scheme will see 23 bays installed in Manor Avenue, Stafford Road and Mill Street.

1940s gathering to mark platinum couple's big day

Family and friends celebrate Alice and Philip Gerrards' 70th wedding anniversary at Cheslyn Hay village hall

THE celebrations were sparse when Alice and Philip Gerrard from Cheslyn Hay got married during the Second World War.

But the couple made up for it last weekend with a 1940s-themed party to mark their platinum wedding anniversary, seven decades of marriage.

The great-grandparents entered into the spirit of things by getting dressed up themselves for the celebration at the village hall in Pinfold Lane.

Alice, aged 86, went as the Queen Mother while Philip, who was 90 on Sunday, wore an APR warden's uniform. They were joined by dozens of their family and friends.

The couple, who have lived in Pinfold Lane for 15 years, were the first to get married at the Methodist Chapel in Featherstone when it opened in 1942.

With rationing in full swing, Alice intended to wed in a blue suit but friends and neighbours rallied round, donating their clothing coupons to enable her to buy enough material from Beatties in Wolver-hampton to make a full wedding dress and veil.

Philip, who was initially in the Home Guard, later joined the South Staffordshire Regiment and wore his uniform for the nuptials.

They had met after Alice's brother Reg, who worked with Philip at Hilton main colliery, set them up on a blind date. The couple went on to have four children, David, 66, Brian, 62, Alison, 61, and Bronwen, 55, followed by five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

With dried fruit in short supply, the newlyweds celebrated with a chocolate wedding cake - and a replica took pride of place on the buffet table at Saturday's party.

Bunting

The hall was decked with union flags and bunting.

Looking back on their 70 years together, Alice said: "We've always loved each other. Life isn't always smooth but that's part of being together. Otherwise I've had the best husband and the best children."

Daughter Alison added: "They've enjoyed a wonderful life with cruises and holidays all over Europe, and they brought up a very close family."

Old Dance School headline triple folk treat

The Old Dance School; Katriona Gilmore & Jamie Roberts; Lady Maisery - Town Hall, Birmingham

IT WAS a triple folk treat with a line-up of diverse and talented young musicians, all part of the new guard. Seven-piece band The Old Dance School headlined, opening with The Long Walk. Craigie Hill featured versatile trumpeter Aaron Diaz, who gave the song's folksy feel an undertone of 60s beat music. The set included the oddity titled The Taxidermist and a new arrangement of The Real Thing which had a Celtic sound mixed with jazz and rock strands, while Swifts and Martins would not have been out of place at a Cellidh. Katriona Gilmore & Jamie Roberts are keeping the wandering minstrel strain of folk music going with their eclectic mix of songs gleaned from stories from family and friends and everyday situations. Trio Lady Maisery, an ultra-traditional folk band, rely mainly on their strong vocal harmonies to tell stories of strange events and magical creatures. Hannah James, Hazel Askew and Rowan Rheingans are also trying to reinvigorate the traditional vocal art of diddling with Hannah even throwing in some clog dancing to boot.

Gold medal show Bard is brought into 21st century

Muse, LG Arena, Birmingham

THE sell-out audience were nicely warmed up by The Joy Formidable, a Welsh outfit featuring Wolverhampton drummer Matt Thomas.

Then it was time for the powerhouse trio of the moment. Devonian rockers Muse have been around for 18 years and six studio albums, including new release The 2nd Law, but finally seem to have won over the mass audience that their epic melodic rock deserves.

Opener Unsustainable has the sonic impact of jamming one's head inside a pinball table and incredible visuals to match as a beyond spectacular wrap-around and hovering-above lighting rig was introduced. Highlights included Resistance, Supermassive Black Hole and Follow Me.

A band this big do two encores. Uprising got arms punching the air before spaghetti western harmonica introduced the prog' rock call to arms Knights of Cydonia. Fans' favourite Starlight led to an Olympic finish with the epic Survival. A gold medal performance.

Leon Burakowski

Matt Bellamy on stage

The Merry Wives of Windsor, Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon.

ONE of Shakespeare's most popular characters, the rotund rogue Falstaff, is brought into the 21st Century in this modern dress version. Settings include a Virginia creeper 'executive home', rugby pitch, pub with pool table and an open-plan living room.

The wives are excellent as they turn the tables on the lecherous old Falstaff, played by star turn Desmond Barrit.

Alexandra Gilbreath is a saucy and husky-voiced Alice Ford, while Sylvester Le Touzel's Meg Page is sensible and mercurial. Anita Dobson is at her most comical as the bustling, hustling go-between Mistress Quickly.

There is much to like in this production, which continues in repertoire until January 12.

Gerry sets pace Real toe-tapper Pop education

60s Gold, Wolverhampton Civic Hall

THE stars of the 60s should be enjoying a relaxing retirement in the sun, but show no signs of slowing down.

This show saw The Love Affair's Steve Ellis, PJ Proby and The Animals take the stage before Gerry and the Pacemakers stepped out to headline with hit after hit including How Do You Do It?, I Like It and Ferry Across the Mersey.

Gerry was generous enough to mention Wolverhampton Wanderers but the song of the night was the famed Liverpool FC anthem, You'll Never Walk Alone.

Helen Brown

42nd Street, Wolverhampton

AUDIENCE members were left tapping their feet as the popular Broadway musical danced its way into the Grand. Routines were slick, accents polished and the costumes oozed glitz and glamour.

Marti Webb's vocals were powerful and effortless as superstar diva Dorothy Brock, while Dave Willetts as Julian Marsh was first-class. Jessica Punch was suitably cast as sweet and innocent chorus girl Peggy Sawyer, but the real stars were the incredible dance troupe.

Charlotte Lilley

Frisky & Mannish, Slade Rooms, Wolverhampton

THE pop educators gave out a lesson with their Extra Curricular Activities. The duo have perfected their craft and attention to detail, but if you don't get the reference, then you won't get Frisky & Mannish.

Highlights included a Girls Aloud nursery rhyme, the Carpenters in a grime - sorry 'grahm' - style a la Professor Green, a brilliant Bee Gees rendition of Rihanna's Rude Boy and duets you thought you'd never hear, like Mark Morrison with Diana Vickers.

Every child's capability known and catered for

St Thomas More Primary School works hard to address the needs of children both in and out of the classroom

We welcome both Catholic and non-Catholic children into the school, which places a big emphasis on living and learning together as a family.

NEWS

Rising songbird Amelia has a Lott to hope for

A RISING star from Cheslyn Hay who hopes to emulate the singing success of Pixie Lott is releasing her debut single early next year.

Amelia Gibson, aged 21, of Wolverhampton Road, has been developing her songwriting with producers from Major Music Academy where Lott began her career.

Staff there spotted Amelia's talent when her youtube videos went viral. The songwriter, who went to Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High, where she learned received, is releasing her EP early next year. It will feature her debut single, Time Waster, inspired by an ex-boyfriend.

Last Friday night, people had the chance to hear her live when she performed at The Three Stirrups pub, Brewood.

Wedding

Amelia, who studied English literature at Wolverhampton University, said: "I really enjoyed the gig at the Stirrups, the pub was really busy."

"The landlords, Adam and Claire, have been really supportive of my music career, I even sang at their wedding."

Landlord Adam Hollinshead said: "We're a local pub, for local people, trying to show our support for the local music scene."

The pub also impressed locals when axed X factor hopeful Joe Whelan, on Wednesday, performed a rock set there in October.

He recently achieved number one in the official Rock Singles Chart with his debut single I Lie Lonely.

Purr-fect owner sought

Anita Humpherson, of Penkridge Cattery, with Roly Poly and Pudding

TWO larger than life cats who enjoyed one too many treats are still trying to find new owners.

Roly Poly, aged four, and six-year-old Pudding were picked up by the Stafford and Wolverhampton branch of the RSPCA after their owner died two months ago and are being cared for at Penkridge Cattery. A loving owner is being sought for the cats, and an open day is being held at the Mere Lane Farm base on Saturday from 12-3pm.

Anyone interested in the cats is asked to call 07715 540206 or email rspcasw@aol.com

Mane fundraising event

A RUGELEY Leisure Centre lifeguard sacrificed his thick mane in the name of charity. John Beatty, aged 26, had his head shaved by duty manager Helen Dixon for Movember, the annual campaign in aid of prostate and testicular cancer. So far John has raised £285. He agreed to undergo the close shave if colleague Jo Pitt gave up smoking.

FOCUS ON BURNTWOOD

Chance to light up life of a loved one

RESIDENTS can donate a light to a loved one when a special tree is erected outside Burntwood Memorial Hall.

The Tree of Light, organised by the Rotary Club, forms part of the town's Christmas decorations. Residents can donate money in memory of a loved one or as a dedication to someone close to their hearts. Money raised will go towards the Young Carers Group.

The tree will be switched on by town council chairman Rod Campbell during a carol service on Sunday November 25 at 5pm.

Clive Cain, club secretary, said: "There will be a screen and projector inside the hall so people will be able to see the chairman press the plunger and light up the tree."

Pledge forms are available at Alexander James and Jaymans at Swan Island.

Scout hut the venue for sale

RESIDENTS in Burntwood looking for a bargain this Christmas are urged to attend a table top sale next month.

The Scout Hut in Ironstone Road is the venue for the two-hour sale from 2pm on Saturday, December 1.

All proceeds will go towards baby charity Premies UK.

Rugby players scrum down to mark club's 40th birthday

RUGBY players in Burntwood are taking part in year-long celebrations to mark their club's 40th anniversary.

Commemorative mugs and ties have been designed to mark Burntwood RUFC's milestone and a disco will be held for players and their families at the Sportsway Clubhouse on Friday, November 23.

A formal dinner and a veteran's rugby match have also been scheduled at the end of the season and players have been debriefing for a WI-style calendar which will be on sale in December with proceeds going to charity.

The club was formed on November 20, 1972, at The Drill Inn on Springle Styche Lane.

Classroom

After being based at various pubs and clubs in the town, it set up its current headquarters in a converted mobile classroom on the North Shore of Chasewater, Church Street in 1995.

A new clubhouse opened in 2002 and was recently extended to include two changing rooms and an

by Charlotte Lilley

entrance hall to an upstairs function room.

Rob Forsyth, club secretary, said: "Since establishing a permanent base, the club has grown from strength to strength. Many of the older members still find it hard to believe how far the club has come."

"It doesn't seem that long since the 25th anniversary when the successful 1997 British Lions manager, Fran Cotton, was the guest speaker."

The 40th anniversary milestone means a lot to the members who can be very proud of the current set up."

For more information about the club's celebrations or for tickets to the disco, telephone 01543 676651.

Ladies in pink for fashion show fundraiser

MEMBERS of a breast cancer support group in Burntwood have hosted a fashion show to raise money for their organisation. Pauline McCaw, organised the event at 7's Nightclub with help from the club's 45 members.

She said: "We held a fashion show in April and it was really successful so we decided to hold another. All the money raised will go back into the group so we can help support our members who have or have had breast cancer."

The club was set up in 2009 by Marie Hiley and Pauline Walker. Its aim is to raise awareness of breast cancer and offer on-going support to women who have been diagnosed with the disease.

Ms Hiley said: "Pauline and I decided it would be nice to have a support group in the area. Women can come here and ask questions and see the light at the end of the tunnel by talking to other women."

The club meets on the third Wednesday of each month at Burntwood Library, Sankey's Corner at 10am. For more information call 07779995620.

Marching band on hunt for members

A MARCHING jazz band in Burntwood is on the lookout for new members.

The Burntwood Adfatoni-ans was set up in September by husband and wife Clare and Glynn Cole. The previous Bluebirds group broke up in 2003 after a drop in numbers.

Mrs Cole said: "There is no other group in Staffordshire of our kind."

"We need more members before we can put our routine together. We are looking for people of all ages starting from four-years-old upwards. We only ask for a donation from members of £1.50 for running costs."

The band currently has 15 members who practise in Hammerwich every week.

Anyone interested should call 07870 510693 or email clare_cole_01@hotmail.com

Santa will lead lantern parade

FATHER Christmas will lead Burntwood's fourth annual Christmas Lantern Parade on December 8.

It will set off from the Youth Centre, Cherry Close at 6.30pm and will end at Burntwood Leisure Centre where there will be a festive market until 8pm.

The Nation Remembers

Remembrance Day and the Two Minute Silence have been observed since the end of the First World War, but their relevance remains undiminished.

When we bow our heads in reflection, we remember those who fought for our freedom during the two World Wars. But we also mourn and honour those who have lost their lives in more recent conflicts. Today, with troops on duty in Afghanistan and other trouble spots around the world, Remembrance, and this two minute tribute, are as important as ever.

Each year the nation expresses its unequivocal support for The Royal British Legion's work through the Poppy Appeal.

The Appeal is the Legion's biggest fundraising campaign and the 2012 Poppy Appeal launched nationally on Wednesday 24 October with a pop-up concert in Trafalgar Square starring Alesha Dixon and Pixie Lott.

Staffordshire Christmas

Charming Katie looks forward to panto role

CANNOCK Traders Association is again organising the start of Christmas with an event and fireworks display in the town centre.

This year's Christmas light switch-on event takes place on Friday, November 16, with fairground rides in the middle of town throughout the day. Dancebizz will be hosting the event and will provide laser shows between 4pm and 8pm.

There will be Victorian themed carol singers, magicians, face painters and stalls which can be found in various locations, including Cannock Shopping Centre. Longford Beefeater has kindly donated the Christmas tree which will be illuminated this year by Santa and the winner of the design a picture competition, undertaken by local school children.

Bandstand

Santa, in association with the Cannock Rotary, will be arriving at 6pm and can be found in his grotto at the bottom bandstand in the middle of town.

There will also be the opportunity to have photos taken by John D Photography. The night will finish with a fireworks display by Pyrotech Fireworks at 7pm which will commence at the top of St Modwen multi-storey car park.

Meanwhile, festivities begin at the Prince of Wales Centre with this year's Christmas production.

Waterloo Road star Katie McGlynn makes her panto debut at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre, playing Fairy Cupcake in Jack & The Beanstalk.

Producer George Critchley also making a welcome return to the Prince Waterloo Road star Katie McGlynn with fellow Jack and the Beanstalk cast members Keith De'Winter, Josh Downen and Rugeley's Studio 5 dancers of Wales stage after 10 years. Jack & The Beanstalk runs from December 24 to 30.

Keith De'Winter will again reprise his role as the Dame, while the lead role will go to West Bromwich actor Josh Downen, his first paid professional role.

The 22-year-old performed at this year's 25th annual Putnam County Spelling Bee at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. And Critchley believes he has unearthed a gem, as he took the role ahead of more than 4,500 applicants. "He really shone at the auditions and he is one for the future," said George.

Josh said he was looking forward to appearing closer to home and performing in front of his family.

Tickets for Jack & the Beanstalk start at £13.50, with a family ticket priced at £42. Call the Church Street centre's box office on 01534 578762.

Staffordshire Christmas

Village market offering the best of British spirit

PENKRIDGE Market announced recently that despite the recession – and the awful wet weather – they are actually up on last year.

In particular, the Bank Holiday markets and car boot sales have been a huge success, despite it raining every time. Market traders have also noticed the increase in visitor numbers and there is now an actual waiting list for market stalls.

Liz Williams, owner of Penkridge Market said: "We really are very grateful for all the loyalty and support from both our customers and traders."

"We are so proud that even in this difficult economic (and wet) climate, we are still busy and thriving."

Not only are the regular Markets on a Wednesday and Saturday booming, but the events on the site are too. The Victorian Christmas Market, held every November, saw a vast increase in visitor numbers in 2011, with more visitors and stall holders than ever before.

Loyalty

This year the event is being held on Friday, November 30, and looks set to be the biggest Christmas Market yet, with more than 100 stalls.

The owners of the Market have also been keen to support their traders during this difficult economic time and have introduced a loyalty scheme to help their regular traders.

Also, as a way of helping local businesses, they have introduced the 'business promotion scheme', which allows any Penkridge business to have a free stall on the market once a year.

Penkridge Market celebrated its 20th Anniversary on October 27 and by way of celebration and thanks, the owners held a special event on the day.

Penkridge Market is situated in the centre of Penkridge, and is signposted off the A449. It is just three miles from Junction 12 of the M6 and is also easily accessible from the A5. It is six miles from Stafford, seven miles from Cannock and 10 miles from Wolverhampton (postcode ST19 5AP).

Could you take on the fiery Dilshad inferno?

An award-winning Indian restaurant – the Dilshad, in Cannock Road, Chadsmoor, is home to the UK's hottest curry

A WARM welcome awaits you at the Dilshad Restaurant, Cannock. Established in 1979, it has proven over the years to be a success in fine dining, bringing the love for authentic Indian food to the heart of the town.

Dilshad is committed to maintaining its high standards and has received many accolades including winner of Best South Asian Restaurant 2012 in the West Midlands Tiffin

Cup. It also achieved fifth place in the National Tiffin Cup 2012 competition awarded by the House of Commons.

"We employ some of the best chefs in our kitchen, creating dishes unrivalled in quality and taste to trigger those taste buds," says Tony Uddin, owner of the Dilshad.

Contemporary

The Dilshad is currently undergoing renovations to expand and double the size of the restaurant, which diners can enjoy from mid-November.

This will allow the popular venue to cater for up to 100 people in one of the best contemporary restaurants in the area.

And if it's spice you like, Dilshad chefs have concocted a tantalising dish. "I have many customers who come here that enjoy a really hot curry," says Tony.

"I thought I would try to make one of the hottest in the UK."

"The Dilshad Inferno is so hot that we ask customers to sign a disclaimer before they eat it."

"It will literally feel like an inferno raging inside. The taste will be absolutely delicious, but each mouthful will hurt like crazy."

Staffordshire Christmas

Deck the halls thanks to Hollybush

THE Hollybush Christmas extravaganza is back with one of the largest and most original choices of Christmas decorations, trees and lights in the Midlands.

It has something for everyone - from pocket money prices to a wonderful array of stylish decorations and lights that would grace a palace.

Once again, there is a sea of traditional reds, gold and silver to the very latest designs in pinks and purples.

The Hollybush Christmas selection gives you the opportunity to forward plan the decor that awaits your family this Christmas. From the trimming of the tree to the setting of the table for Christmas dinner - Hollybush has it all, including a wonderful array of Christmas trees in all sizes and colours.

Its lighting range will make your choice harder than ever with static lights, chaser lights, indoor and outdoor lights. Artificial wreaths will surprise you with their variation and originality, with new items sourced from the world over.

Nativity scenes and animation displays will be the envy of your friends and provide a real talking point this Christmas. But don't forget the most important person of all this Christmas - Santa Claus.

He will be arriving on Saturday, November 10, to take up residence at Hollybush every weekend, right up to December 23 from 11am to 3pm. He will even be available on December 24 from 11am to 2pm. Admission to see Santa is only £3.95 and includes a gift.

Don't forget he's available weekends from 11am to 3pm but he does have to feed his reindeer from 1 to 1.30pm.

The gift department is packed with CDs, DVDs, cuddly toys, books, jigsaws and not surprisingly there is every conceivable item for the gardener.

If that is not choice enough, a Hollybush gift voucher is ideal. A new sales showroom and superb new coffee shop and restaurant are now open.

Visit the Christmas Wonderland at Hollybush this year for more choice, more value and easier shopping.

Annual event to support heroes

STAR of the West End show Les Misérables, the local boy made good Andy Reiss, will be the headlining act at a charity fundraiser in his home town this weekend.

Raising funds for Help For Heroes, the 'Remember the Heroes' event is in its third year, and has already raised around £15,000 for the charity.

Organiser and ex-Royal Marine Derek Bagnall said it would be a fun packed and enjoyable evening, and he hoped it would again be a sell-out event.

"The show will have everything, from dancers to comedians musicians and singers - along with Andy Reiss who is very talented and well-known," he said.

Mr Bagnall said all acts performed for free so every penny raised on the night would go to the charity.

The event will be held on November 11 at 7.30pm at the Prince of Wales Centre in Church Street, Cannock. Tickets cost £15 from the box office on 01543 578762.

Rock covers band are the top dogs

TOP Cannock band The Rock Dogs will be playing at The Trident in Burntwood this weekend.

The band plays covers from the likes of Kings of Leon, Snow Patrol, Cee-Lo Green, Foo Fighters and The Kinks.

The lads will be on stage from 9pm on Saturday (November 10). Entry is free.

Check your Calendar to see the girls reveal their story

THE global phenomenon Calendar Girls returns to Wolverhampton Grand next week after a record-breaking performance at the theatre in October last year.

Based on a true story and the smash hit film, Calendar Girls is quirky, poignant and hilarious show.

Volcano to erupt with sonnet play

IN celebration of its 25th anniversary, theatre production company Volcano is reviving its hit threesome based on Shakespeare's sonnets.

The new production of L.O.V.E. will play at the Arena Theatre, Wolverhampton, on November 13 and 14 from 7.30pm.

In tribute to the original director and choreographer, Nigel Charnock, who died last month, the play is being restaged using the original design and choreography.

The company said it had been turned into a "bittersweet celebration". Tickets cost £9 (£7 concessions) on 01902 321 321.

It tells the story of a group of women, all members of a Yorkshire WI, who became a world-wide phenomenon when they persuade one another to pose for a charity calendar with a difference.

Birds of a Feather star, Lesley Joseph, plays the role of Miss October alongside a stellar cast that includes Kacey Ainsworth who played Little Mo in EastEnders, and Su Holderness who is best known as Marlene Boyce in the BBC's hugely popular Only Fools and Horses.

Kathryn Rooney returns as Miss September having starred in the West End production, and Hollyoaks star Kevin Sacre plays Lawrence, the photographer, alongside his wife Camilla Dallerup as Miss May.

Directed by Jack Ryder and with set design by Robert Jones, the show ought to be on everyone's calendar when it starts on Monday for one week only.

Evanescence frontwoman Amy Lee struggles with fame

Cool mystery in fast world of rock

IN the fast-moving world of pop, Evanescence are something of an anomaly.

Every time they release an album it's treated as a comeback. That's not because they've split up and reformed, rather because they like to take their time.

Lead singer Amy Lee says: "People these days make records so fast... but I guess I really feel like the more important thing is making something really great."

"Our following has always been a little underground and we're not that thing that's on the radio all the time. There is an element of cool mysterious."

The Evanescence juggernaut has been working its way around the globe since 2011, when they released their third album, titled Evanescence, the follow-up to 2006's smash hit The Open Door. "I think that we were really lucky with Fallen and had a much bigger success than we could have planned for," the 30-year-old says.

"It's afforded me having things like a few years between records to make something truly inspired the next time around."

But the fame of the group - formed in 1995 in Little Rock, Arkansas - has hardened Lee.

"Whether it's a relationship or what you're wearing, or how much you weigh and what you said when you didn't mean it like - it's hard to be totally under the microscope," she says. "But I feel better about it now."

The sound of their latest self-titled album is not a huge departure from Fallen, but it was more of a 'group effort', Lee says.

● Evanescence play Birmingham's NIA on Thursday and tickets are available from the venue.

Pick of the Week

Celebrities launch into a new jungle challenge

Ant and Dec return for a new run of the series that dozens of critics love to ridicule, but millions of us can't get enough of.

This year marks the 10th anniversary of the show which successfully mashed up Celebrity Big Brother with Survivor and became one of the most talked about shows on TV.

In 2002, the powers that be at ITV first discussed the seemingly absurd idea of taking a handful of headline-grabbing celebrities, cutting off their home comforts and throwing them in to the middle of a beastie-inhabited Australian jungle.

"It'll never work" cried a groaning public. How wrong we seemingly were.

Admittedly there are plenty of celebrities we'd love to throw in the jungle never to see a trace of again.

But we'll happily settle for the next best thing – sending them into the claustrophobic rat-ridden pits, swimming through snake-infested swamps or having them served up a three-course meal of the jungle men's finest delicacies.

As usual, ITV is keeping it under wraps exactly who will be putting themselves at the mercy of the jungle, but so far those rumoured to be in the running include former Corrie girl Helen Flanagan, Olympic swimmer Rebecca Adlington, darts ace Eric Bristow, former Pussycat Doll Ashley Roberts, actress Linda Robson (Birds of a Feather), and, stretching the Celebrity tag to breaking point, Kate Middleton's burlesque stripper cousin Katrina Darling. (No, we haven't got a clue either).

While some celebs may have come across as big girls' blouses during the trials, former contestant Jennie Bond proved she was made of tougher stuff.

"I'm a Celebrity... was the most life changing part of my career," recalls the ex-BBC Royal Correspondent. "Being buried in a coffin and covered in rats for the show was enough to give many folks nightmares, but Jennie took it all in her stride."

"They said: 'Creatures would come in...' and I thought: 'Okay, that's rats. I can handle that. I was thinking about snakes and how I was going to tackle the snakes coming in, and they never did. So it was mind over matter really."

Christopher Biggins also has 'fond' memories of his time in the jungle. "I loved every minute of it, I wouldn't have missed it for the world – and I'd never do it again," he laughs with that trademark cackle.

"It was very, very tough. The boredom is the biggest thing. There's nothing to do, nothing to read, nothing to write with, nothing to watch, all you have is your fellow contestants, and you long to go out and be covered in rats or something because it relieves the boredom."

Ah yes, the boredom. Something Dom Joly also had a problem with. "It seems to go on forever," he remarks.

"You get up so early and the only sort of saving grace is you go to bed as early as possible to try and get it to finish."

Messrs McPartlin and Donnelly will also be opting for an early night as they have to be up at the crack of dawn to present our evening launch show, before possibly retiring to the hotel pool, or more likely a couple of hours on the golf course.

A hard life isn't it lads?

Ant and Dec host I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here!, Sunday, ITV1, 9pm

Best of the Rest

Monday

The All New Gadget Show Channel 5, 8pm

Jason Bradbury and Pollyanna Woodward continue their tech-led trek across the globe, making a stop in the spectacular surroundings of Iceland. During a whale-watching trip, they test out the latest binoculars and back on dry land, turn their attention to geothermal technology. After their sojourn in the wilderness, it's time to sample the country's urban landscape. In Reykjavik, they ditch the expensive gadgets to concentrate on budget alternatives – laptops are put through their paces before sampling cloud storage solutions. Part-travelogue, part-consumer show, this series continues to go from strength to strength and is a must for those trying desperately to keep up with the latest technological developments.

Full English

Channel 4, 10.50pm

When it comes to sitcoms, the Brits can generally hold their own against the US, except in one area – animation. However, Full English is here to restore some of our natural pride and show we can take on the likes of Family Guy and The Simpsons. The IT Crowd's Richard Ayoade provides the voice of Wendy (Rosie Cavaliero), moody teenage daughter Eve (Daisy Haggard), and sons Dusty and Jason (both voiced by Facejacker's Kayvan Novak). In the first episode, Eve enters her band, Bloodmonkey, into Britain's Got Talent and does unexpectedly well – not because she's any good, but because Simon Cowell mistakenly thinks she's an orphan.

Tuesday

The Paradise BBC1, 9pm

This latest offering from the Beeb seems to have worked wonders for rising starlet Joanna Vanderham – so now that we've reached the last episode of the series, here's hoping the offers come rolling in for her. The wedding is fast approaching but will there be a happy ending for anyone? It looks doubtful, as a shocking discovery in the dead of night sends shockwaves through the Paradise. Moray puts together a party for the staff to celebrate his marriage, but instead he realises where his heart lies. So he has a decision to make.

Wednesday

The Hour BBC2, 9pm

Following a barnstorming debut series last year, we're thrilled to see this newsroom drama back – it's intelligent, informative and features some fantastic acting from a talented ensemble cast – basically all the things you want from a good programme. It's now November 1957, and Freddie has gone travelling, leaving Hector and Bel to keep The Hour going. But new boss Randall Brown has a trick up his sleeve that will shake them both up. However, Hector seems more interested in using his newfound celebrity status to rub shoulders with Soho's glitterati, in particular a beautiful showgirl called Kiki. Dominic West stars.

Thursday

Young Apprentice BBC1, 8pm

Although the main series of The Apprentice steals the limelight, this version, comprising of younger hopefuls, never fails to make for compelling viewing. There's something incredibly satisfying about seeing the next crop of talented business brains getting a platform on which to prove their talents – and also, let's be honest, to see precocious, over-confident youngsters put in their place. There's plenty of drama in this week's challenge as Alan Sugar calls the two teams to the home of the English National Opera, the London Coliseum, where he sets them a daunting task. They are sent into London with a list of 10 theatrical props that they must find.

Hebburn

BBC2, 10pm

Once we'd got over the initial confusion of Jim Moir and Vic Reeves being one and the same person, this sitcom has proved to be a real winner. This week, Jack, who thought he'd escaped journalism when it looked like his book about Gazza was going to be a bestseller, starts his new job as the editor of the Hebburn Advertiser.

Friday

Children in Need 2012 BBC1, 7.30pm

Arguably the biggest and most difficult live TV event of the year is this charity telethon. However, one man who seems to thrive on such occasions is veteran presenter Terry Wogan, who this time around will be joined by co-hosts Tess Daly and Fearnie Cotton. They'll be introducing performances from the likes of One Direction, Susan Boyle and Girls Aloud, while Britain's Got Talent winner Pudsey the dog joins Pudsey Bear for an unforgettable moment. Appearing in a Strictly Come Dancing special are Ann Widdecombe and Russell Grant, and there's a chance to see a prequel to the Doctor Who Christmas special, starring Matt Smith.

Attenborough: 60 Years in the Wild BBC2, 9pm

It's amazing to think that all David Attenborough's accomplishments have been achieved by just one person. His career spans a lifetime, which is a notion that's made all the more surprising when you look at many of today's flash-in-the-pan celebs. There's no doubt that he's one of the greatest broadcasters of all time, and even today at the age of 86 he's still making must-see programmes. In this new three-parter, Attenborough reflects upon his celebrated TV career, charting the changes in the natural world and in peoples' understanding of the planet, as well as focusing on the developments in wildlife film-making. In the first episode, he looks back on some of the incredible animal encounters which have punctuated his career.

FAMILY MOVES BACK HOME TO RUGELEY THANKS TO PART EXCHANGE

A family from Hednesford has been able to move back to their roots thanks to Barratt West Midlands' Part Exchange scheme.

Matt and Cathy Withington, age 40 and 37, took advantage of the Part Exchange service and moved from their previous three-bedroom semi-detached house to a four-bedroom detached property at Barratt's sought after Bracken Gardens development in Rugeley and found the transition back to the place where they grew up, cost less than they expected.

The couple moved away from Rugeley in their twenties. Matt said, "It is great to be moving back home to Rugeley because we are nearer our family and friends. It also has all the facilities we need such as a school for our 3 year old son Joseph, which is just five minutes away."

With Part Exchange all purchasers need to do is reserve their new Barratt home, then the company arranges for the property to be inspected by two independent valuers and makes a fair offer based on the average of the two valuations.

This means purchasers do not have to worry about things such as estate agent fees or viewings at inconvenient times. Plus Barratt is effectively a cash buyer, so there is no chance of a chain falling apart and purchasers can concentrate on enjoying their new home.

"We were very happy with the Part Exchange scheme, it took so much pressure off us", comments Cathy. "We saw a show home advertised and couldn't believe the price.

We have upgraded to a better area and a bigger house and we are now really enjoying the extra space.

"The size of our new home is great, the accommodation is really generous and every room is a good size. We also have a drive with a garage now and the garden is absolutely fantastic.

"We have always bought new build houses because they are much more convenient when it comes to decorating. We looked at a lot of other properties but there is so much you need to change with older homes and this new property had such a different and unique feel to it.

"Plus Rachel at the sales office was fantastic, she had the answers to all of our questions."

Lisa Thacker, Sales Manager for Barratt West Midlands, comments "Our Part Exchange service is specifically designed to help buyers like Matt and Cathy who are looking to make a hassle free move to a bigger home.

"We're delighted that they have been able to find a bigger house through the scheme and their example should give a real boost of confidence to buyers in the West Midlands who want to move to a larger house.

"We can step in as a company to either purchase your home or find a buyer on your behalf in order to kickstart your move to one of our developments."

Bracken Gardens is located on Armitage Road, Rugeley and provides excellent amenities and leisure facilities nearby. Accessible road links brings Uttoxeter, Cannock and Stafford within easy reach.

The development currently features a range of one- and two-bedroom apartments available from £89,950 and two-, three- and four-bedroom houses priced from £132,950. For more information, please contact the sales office on 01543 491171 open daily from 10am to 5pm.

Alternatively, please call the sales hotline on 0844 811 9933 open seven days a week from 8am to 9pm or log on to www.barratthomes.co.uk/brackengardens

For added peace of mind, buyers can also benefit from Barratt's new five year guarantee on fixtures and fittings in their new home at the time of purchase. Items covered at no extra cost to the buyer will include appliances such as washing machines and refrigerators, kitchen units, wardrobes, the central heating system, fires, doors, windows, drainage, the hot and cold plumbing system and even the driveway.

Barratt West Midlands has been confirmed as meriting the maximum five star official rating from the Home Builders Federation (HBF) for the second year in a row. The news was announced after more than 20,000 new home buyers across the country took part in this year's HBF customer satisfaction survey.

British built Honda on sale from £21,395

HONDA'S new British-built CR-V is now on sale in the UK.

Prices start from £21,395 OTR for the entry level 2.0 i-VTEC manual S grade 2WD model, rising to £30,995 for the 2.2 i-DTEC EX AWD with manual transmission.

The introduction of the 2WD allows the new CR-V to enter the market with a lower entry price. Honda has also improved the specifications through the whole of the range, whilst still managing to keep costs in line with the third generation CR-V.

The new, fourth generation CR-V offers even greater quality, practicality and refinement and both the 2.0 i-VTEC and 2.2 i-DTEC engines emit significantly less CO2. Plus, for the first time in Europe, the new CR-V will be offered with a choice of two-and four-wheel drive. With the rear seats in place the boot capacity is a spacious 589 litres and this extends to 1,669 litres when the seats are down. A keyless entry and power tailgate (standard on EX trim level) is added. The new CR-V will be available with four generously equipped trim levels S, SE, SR and EX. The entry-level S features 5in Intelligent Multi Info Display (i-MID), driver power lumbar support, idle stop, dual-zone climate control, cruise control, 17in alloy wheels, fabric interior, hill start assist, steering wheel stereo controls, USB/iPod auxiliary input, one-touch folding rear seats. Plus a CD tuner and four-speaker stereo, Vehicle Stability Assist (VSA), anti-lock braking system (ABS), electronic brakeforce distribution (EBD), brake assist (BA), trailer stability assist (TSA) and central locking.

The SE adds a leather steering wheel and gearshifter, rain-sensing auto wipers, dusk-sensing auto lights, auto-dim rear view mirror, front and rear parking sensors, rear-view parking camera, one-touch power windows, electrically folding door mirrors, six-speaker stereo, Bluetooth hands-free telephone, front foglights, tweeters and a CATI alarm.

The SR features half leather and Alcantara interior, heated front seats, ambient lighting for driver/passenger footwell and doors, premium audio, DAB radio, colour-coded roof rails, privacy glass, Bi-HID lights with auto levelling, dynamic cornering lights, high beam support system, headlight washers, 18in alloy wheels, passenger power lumbar support and manual passenger seat height adjustment.

CHRONICLE MOTORING

Don't cut corners on road safety this winter

AS UK motorists continue to cut corners on car maintenance due to the economic pinch, GEM Motoring Assist, road safety organisation and breakdown cover company, is launching its winter driving campaign to increase awareness of the potential dangers on the roads, particularly as temperatures start to drop and conditions worsen across the country.

According to GEM, it is never too early to get your vehicle fully prepared for the wintery weather and the company is continuing to offer practical advice via its free winter driving leaflet.

Packed full of advice and checklists, the leaflet is a useful resource for motorists and aims to help prevent drivers from being a victim of a serious accident or hazardous breakdown situation during the winter period.

Last year, the company also launched a winter driving video, providing easy online access to its winter driving advice.

Featuring visual scenes on winter driving, the four-minute video highlights how dramatically driving dynamics change as the conditions worsen.

The video demonstrates how much more time and space should be allowed when driving in wintery conditions, as stopping distances increase tenfold and the slightest oversteering or braking can cause complete loss of control.

GEM chief executive, David Williams MBE, says: "Each year, we work hard to provide crucial information and advice to keep drivers safe on the roads. Carrying out the necessary checks ahead of the winter weather, and being properly prepared, could make all the difference between a safe journey and one that could potentially end in disaster."

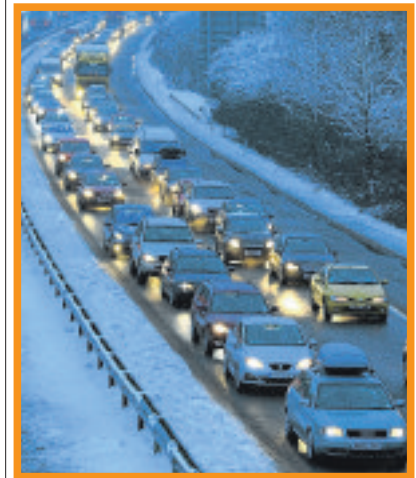

Negative "We know that tighter budgets and rocketing fuel costs have had a negative impact on motorists' car maintenance habits, as many see it as a low priority in these tough times, however, this lack of care will undoubtedly make cars less reliable, and driving an unsafe vehicle puts drivers, passengers, and other road users in unnecessary danger."

"Not only is it important for drivers to be ready for winter but they must also be aware of the changes in driving dynamics, which is why we created the online winter driving video. We hope that the combination of the leaflet and video will give motorists all the advice they need for a safe winter on the roads," David concludes.

GEM's winter driving checklist:

1. Check that your vehicle is properly maintained and fully serviced.
2. Ensure tyres have plenty of tread depth, are in good condition, and correctly inflated (don't forget the spare).
3. Radiators must contain anti-freeze and also check that the cooling system is free from leaks.
4. Batteries must be in good condition (many garages/battery suppliers will carry out this check free-of-charge).
5. Ensure windscreen wipers and washers are working effectively.
6. Washer bottles must be full and contain anti-freezing/cleaning additive.
7. Clean all lights and check they are all working properly.
8. All windows and mirrors must be clean and clear from snow and ice before driving.
9. Keep fluorescent/high visibility jackets in the car, in case of a breakdown situation.
10. Store extra clothes or blankets in the vehicle, in case of a breakdown.

Hybrid estate likely to appeal to businesses

The new Peugeot 508 hybrid estate has been launched

PEUGEOT has launched its new 508 hybrid estate and certainly one sector of the marketplace that will be looking very keenly is the business segment, writes Bob Hickman.

With low running costs, this vehicle albeit an expensive vehicle, should find many willing business users. It is not just a diesel, it is an electric hybrid so allows a much lower benefit in kind figures to be utilised than a pure diesel.

There is little doubt that the new 508 is a seriously big car. The 508 Hybrid 4 is powered by a 163 bhp 2-litre diesel engine and also a 37 bhp electric motor, with an automatic type gearbox which should give reasonable performance and driving comfort.

The gearbox to me was a bit hit and miss. But, that said, if you are happy just to plod around, by putting the vehicle in Auto mode you would not really have any serious problems. It is possible to drive it in a sportier mode when you have instant performance from the diesel and the electric. You can also opt in to a mode that just allows the electric motor to propel you for short distances in and around town.

The vehicle is big and it felt a heavy, substantial, solid vehicle, never was it going to be a spirited performer on twisty country roads but it performed adequately.

The vehicle is seriously refined and will be a rewarding vehicle. The downside for me is the list price of the vehicle; my particular 508 would cost £33,695 on the road.

Husband

I little knew that morning God was going to call your name, in life I loved you dearly, in death I do the same.

It broke my heart to lose you, you did not go alone for part of me went with you the day God called you home.

You left me beautiful memories, your love is still my guide and though I cannot see you're always at my side.

Our Family chain is broken and nothing seems the same but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.

My Husband and my best Friend, I miss you, love you always.

Mo.

X

Dad

God saw him getting tired, a cure was not to be. He wrapped him in His loving arms and whispered come to Me.

He suffered much in silence, his spirit did not bend, he faced his pain with courage until the very end.

He tried so hard to stay with us but his fight was not in vain, God took him to His loving home and freed him from the pain.

Be with us always, we love you Dad.

Iain and Shelley.

Our fondest thoughts to the very best Son-in-law we could have wished for.

Grocott's late kick seals the victory

Rugeley 14 Warley 12

A LATE penalty completed Rugeley's revival and gave them victory.

Adam Grocott's aim from 30 metres was sure and there was time for just one passage of play after the kick before the final whistle sounded.

Warley established good early pressure in this Midlands Five West (North) encounter.

Grocott missed a straight-forward penalty shot in the seventh minute.

But he did not err three minutes later when good forward play by Dave Black, Tom Wilson and Martyn Bentley forced the visitors to concede another penalty.

At the restart Warley went right back at the home side and levelled the score with a 16th-minute penalty.

Warley continued to pile on the pressure, but Rugeley absorbed it and broke away to raise the siege.

But Warley regrouped and in the space of 10 minutes Rugeley conceded three penalties. All were kicked for Warley to lead 12-3 at half-time.

Rugeley hit back in the second half via Grocott's boot to get within six points.

Force

Then they sprang to life with a surging run by prop forward Bentley, whose try left Warley just one point up.

Rugeley continued to pile on the pressure with Warley's defence starting to show more than a few cracks.

The home side were trying to force Warley into mistakes right in front of their try line.

Close to full-time, Warley conceded a penalty 30 metres out.

Grocott stepped up and shrugged off the pressure to land the match-winning shot.

Warley 12 Rugeley 10

Rugeley seconds lost a hard-fought encounter at Warley, who started much the stronger and raced away to a 12-0 lead.

Rugeley got themselves back in the game with a try on half-time with a long run from Bobby Hastings.

The second half saw Warley frustrate Rugeley with a forwards-based game.

However, a late rally with a splendid run by Robbie Castles saw Barrie Newton score. With just seconds remaining Rugeley almost stole the win with another run by Castles, but this time his pass went astray.

Climb up table follows close-fought encounter

Burntwood drop to second despite best rugby

Bloxwich 15 Burntwood 20

BURNTWOOD played some of their best rugby of the season for a 17-3 first half lead, failed to build on it but kept their unbeaten start despite a fightback.

They fell to second in the table after a bonus-point win for Newcastle (Staffs) at Cleobury Mortimer.

Luke Rookyard got behind the home defence but Lloyd Shelley failed to take his pass and promising bursts by Craig Seedhouse, Shelley and Tom O'Brien saw final passes go astray.

Seedhouse used the boot to get good position in the bottom corner on 14 minutes. A crooked Burntwood throw gave Burntwood a five-metre scrum.

Jack Neal caught the back row napping with a pick-up and dive over and Aza Dune't converted.

Neal's strong run and a quick ruck followed by a tapped penalty saw Hal Gozukucuk put Ben Holt clean through only to be brought back for a forward pass.

The hosts scored a penalty on 21 minutes and had a half-chance, but a forward pass left Burntwood to clear.

Gozkucuk's unstoppable 25m run brought his fourth try in two games. It was converted by Dune't and, after an infringement at a scrum, took three points in front of the posts.

Burntwood's Jack Neal finds himself surrounded by Bloxwich opponents

The second half was more stop-start with Burntwood never regaining their fluency. A prolonged attack saw Neal sin binned for a ruck offence.

Burntwood had a chance to extend their lead but Dune't's penalty attempt was wide. With Neal about to return, the hosts won a penalty at a scrum. A tap and go created a try from a maul in the bottom corner to make it 17-8.

Late goal completes comeback for Wood

Bolehall Swifts 2
Walsall Wood 4

WOOD, two down after just 10 minutes, roared back to beat in-form Bolehall at Rene Road in the Walsall Senior Cup.

The result was in doubt until the 85th minute when Lewis Taylor Boyce scored the sixth goal of the night.

After five minutes on Tuesday night, a right-wing throw was delivered into the right of the Wood box, a defensive back header went straight to Danny Hales on the right of the six-yard box and he gleefully tucked the chance away.

Swifts cwon a left-wing corner on 10 minutes. The ball was delivered low to the near post and Troy Wallen's mis-kick flew across the face of the six-yard box to be hammered home by Daniel Getliff.

Two minutes later it was nearly three when Nathan Thompson lobbed the advancing keeper but Tom Howard raced back to calmly clear the ball off the line.

Wood finally started to settle and both Drew Aiton and Lewis Taylor Boyce went close.

They got a foothold in the game in the 35th minute. Aa defender appeared to have the ball covered but Ahmet Bilgimer won it and was hauled down for a penalty, which Aiton converted.

The equaliser came on 42 minutes when Bilgimer hammered home.

Two minutes into the second half Aiton went on an incredible run beating the defence before tucking the ball past the keeper.

In the final five minutes with the Swifts keeper 35 yards off his line, the ball dropped in front of him but Taylor Boyce was in quickly to flick it goalwards. It trickled inside the post to complete a brilliant comeback.

Alfie's hat-trick leads Rangers to win

Rugeley Rangers U9 7
Lichfield City U9 2

A TIGHT first half saw Rangers go in 2-1 down at the break, Alfie Gladwin scoring their only goal.

The second half was a different story, with Liam O'Neil causing problems for the Lichfield defence. Gladwin scored his second and Charlie Jessop put Rangers ahead.

Declan Hopwood scored with a good finish; Gladwin secured his hat-trick with a goal direct from a corner. Hopwood got the sixth from the penalty spot before completing his own treble.

Despite the goal rush, Rangers' players of the match were Charlie

Rimmer and Cameron Cope, superb in defence. Keeper Evan Downes gave a solid performance.

Rugeley Rangers U15 11
Brewood Juniors U15 0

Rugeley gave an outstanding performance to ease into the next round of the County Cup as Scott Gratton bagged five goals. Chris Alderson netted a hat-trick, Tom Downes a double and Liam Webb was also on the mark.

Church Farm U9 2 Sutton Town U9 1
Good teamwork saw Church Farm secure a second successive win. Harry Steele and Jamie Rock got the goals with defender Dylan Wright man of the match.

Junior football

Church Farm U11 3
Four Oaks Falcons U11 3

Church Farm just failed to hold on to their advantage. Goals from Callum Smith (2) and Ricki Edge saw them 3-1 up with five minutes to go only for the Falcons to level.

Hawkins Sports U11 3
Rushall Olympic U11 1

A Connor Farmer hat-trick helped Hawkins to victory in this League Cup fourth round tie. Hawkins took an early lead when Farmer headed in Carter Shelley's corner. Rushall levelled from a free-kick and Farmer had a strike ruled out for offside just before half-time. Ben Osbourne and Kyle Weaver combined to set up Farmer for his second goal and he later completed his hat-trick.

Wyrley Juniors United U12 2
Rour Oaks Panthers U12 3

Wyrley were only denied a late equaliser when the Four Oaks keeper did well to save a shot from substitute Lewis Hill. Wyrley's Sam Foreman, Tom Peacock and Tom Rowlands worked hard in midfield. Four Oaks took the lead, but then failed to deal with a cross and were punished by Zak Hallett's cool finish. The visitors went 3-1 up, but Hallett's neat finish into the bottom corner to put Wyrley back in the game.

Heath Hayes U15 8
Wyrley Wolves U15 0

Dominant Hayes progressed to the next round of the Staffordshire Senior Cup, captain Josh Wilding leading the way with a hat-trick. Jacob Ward had opened the floodgates, and there were also goals for Curtis Shipp, Jack Smith, Spencer Hands and Charlie Brough.

Breerton Town U10 0
Aldridge Starlights U10 6

Short-handed Breerton battled hard before losing. Ethan Hopcott was man of the match.

Pitmen keep their winning run going

Whitby 0 Hednesford Town 2
HEDNESFORD TOWN made it four league wins on the bounce, and five victories on the spin in all competitions, against fellow in-form side Whitby Town, writes Scott Smith.

A goal in each half from midfield duo Nathan Woolfe and Jamey Osborne proved enough for the Pitmen, who made it seven league games unbeaten on the road this season and went second in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League table.

It was the hosts who threatened first when Sam Barnes was forced into an excellent recovery tackle inside his own box to snuff out a Whitby chance.

At the other end Woolfe clipped the top of the bar with a 25-yard free-kick, after the lively Osborne had been brought down.

Curling

This spurred the Pitmen on and they duly took the lead in the 18th minute.

John Disney picked up the ball inside the penalty area and his dinked cross beat Whitby keeper Nick Liveredge and bundled home.

They almost doubled their lead in the 34th minute. Neil Harvey set up Elliott Durrell, whose low curling effort was turned behind.

As half-time neared, the home side twice almost drew level.

In the second half Hednesford made it 2-0 following a wonderful counter-attack from a Whitby corner.

The ball was played out to Woolfe, who took on his man before playing in Osborne to slot home past Liveredge for his second goal in as many seasons at the Turnbull Ground.

Substitute Michael Lennon almost made it three.

Aaron Rey saw his header cleared off the line before Ben Bailey poked wide.

Six of the best as visitors get caned

Chris Deakin heads in the second

Boxers enjoy mixed fortunes

GREAT WYRLEY ABC boxers had contrasting fortunes in Birmingham.

Fifteen-year-old Jamie Mansell dropped a close decision to Louis Parkes (Solihull ABC) while Reece Roberts, 16, boxed superbly to take a unanimous decision over local hero Jordan Letts of IBA ABC.

Parkes was wide open as he attacked but the upright Mansell couldn't seem to get his punches off and found himself backed up against the ropes.

Mansell found a bit more room in the second and began to tee off rapid-fire combinations that drew applause.

However, needing a big last round to ensure the decision he found the tank empty and the ever-willing Parkes took the last round and bout.

Letts, fresh from a bout with England international Trent Smith, started behind his jab, but Roberts was too busy for him. Combinations to head and body found their mark and in the second round, Reece's right hand found the target time and again.

Roberts tired in the third due to the work he put in, but held on for a third successive win. Coach Peter Hickenbottom said: "Reece lost his first five bouts, but at least three of them could have gone his way. I said once he won a bout he wouldn't stop winning."

"Jamie knows now that he can't skimp on his training and roadwork."

"We're hoping for a return with Parkes in the near future, but I was very proud of both lads on Saturday night."

The Chronicle, a Midland News Association Ltd publication, printed by the company at Kettle, Telford, Thursday, November 8, 2012.

DERBY DELIGHT AT DEAKIN'S DOUBLE

A GOAL in each half from Chris Deakin was enough to secure a place in the next round of the Walsall Senior Cup for Heath Hayes in this keenly-fought local derby.

Chasetown had the better of the opening exchanges and it took a couple of fine saves from home keeper Adam Jenkinson, in his first game since injuring a hand in last season's corresponding fixture, to keep them at bay.

However, the home side took the fight to their higher league opponents.

Dave Waple and Tom Green both tested Chasetown keeper Marilez Kiesel and after a period of pressure they took the lead after 28 minutes on Tuesday.

Deakin picked up the ball on the halfway line and beat three players before planting a superb effort beyond Kiesel's despairing reach.

The home side continued to have the better of the play and were full value for their interval lead.

Blame

The second half opened with them again in the ascendancy and Kiesel produced a brilliant double save to deny Green and Waple.

However, the keeper may have been to blame on 55 minutes when a looping header from Deakin ended up in the back of the net.

Chasetown came back well, but the home defence withstood all that was thrown at them.

Tom Baggott and Adam Robinson put their bodies on the line to subdue any threat of a comeback to typify the spirit shown by the team.

In the final minutes Deakin showed sublime skill in beating three players only for the woodwork to deny him a well-deserved hat-trick.

Heath Hayes

Stourport 4 Heath Hayes 0 Hayes' impressive recent Midland Alliance form deserted them as they slumped to a heavy defeat at second-placed Swifts on Saturday.

For the first 25 minutes Hayes were more than a match for the home side and it took a couple of brilliant saves from Swifts' keeper Danny Platt to keep out efforts from Dave Waple and Tom Green.

Brad Grice was unlucky to see a powerful header shave the post with Platt beaten.

Things changed dramatically on the half hour when Swifts scored twice in five minutes.

First the Hayes defence backed off and allowed John Griffin time and space to fire home from 15 yards and then they failed to deal with a harmless looking cross and the dangerous Lewis Pountney headed home.

The visitors never recovered and their play became littered with elementary errors.

Hayes were given a lifeline on 76 minutes when Swifts' Kevin Spencer was dismissed for violent conduct but never took advantage.

Griffin then scored two late goals for his hat-trick.

Hard work pays as skater reaches championship

A TEENAGE skater from Penkridge is poised to appear in the British figure skating championships.

Darcy-Adele Lloyd, 19, will compete at Sheffield between November 27 and December 2.

She has skated since the age of five and currently splits her training between rinks at Solihull and Telford.

At Telford she is coached by Jacquie Lloyd (no relation), who has guided her progress from beginner to level 10, representing England in the Home Countries International and taking part in IJS (International Judging System) competitions.

For the past three years, she has also had tuition at Solihull with advanced coach Anne Crompton-Turner. Both will accompany her to Sheffield.

The past year has seen Lloyd skate at IJS events in Italy, Latvia and Scotland.

It is her first season at senior level. She was hoping to reach the 2013 British championships so has achieved her goal a year early.

The former Wolgarston High School pupil said was through "a lot of early mornings, hard work and good coaching".

Lloyd, who is studying sport development and coaching at Staffordshire University, added: "I am really happy to have got there; I just want to skate my best."

Skater Darcy-Adele Lloyd, aged 19, is on her way to the British championships

Medals haul for Phoenix

CANNOCK Phoenix Swimming Club are celebrating a 25-strong medal haul.

They struck gold at the Roebuck Open Gala at Wolverhampton Central Baths.

Sixteen swimmers came back with 10 gold, 11 silver and four bronze medals.

Outstanding swimmers included nine-year-old Olivia Woolley achieving a Midland qualifying time in the 200m backstroke.

Ben Whitehouse smashed the qualifying time by three seconds in the 200m crawl and Joshua Veale landed four Midland qualifying times from his six events.

There was strength in depth with medals throughout the age ranges. A number of races finished with a one-two-three clean sweep.

Head coach Luke Thomas has been targeting next year's Midland championships and predicts a record number of qualifiers.
